MAKE YOUR OWN STORY BY CHANGING THE WORDS UNDERLINED.

- 1. I found a small dragon in the garden. 2. It was wet and green. 3. I gave it many things: grass, leaves, flowers, chocolate, yoghurt, but it didn't eat them. 4. It wasn't happy and it was silent. 5. I didn't know what to do.

6. I asked my Mum and Dad, but they didn't know what to do.

7. Then I took it back to the edge of the big forest and I said, "Go on! Go home!" and it walked into the forest and disappeared.

LONG LONG GRASS
SWISH SWISH SWISH

A photograph showing a man lying in a thick mud pit. He is covered in mud, with mud smeared on his face and hair. He is wearing a patterned shirt and dark pants. Another person, wearing a light purple striped shirt, is leaning over him, reaching out with their hand to help him. The background is a blurred, muddy landscape. The text "THICK THICK MUD" is overlaid in the upper center of the image.
