

“Do you want to visit London?”

The motto of our lesson is:

The more you live ,
The more you travel,
The more you travel,
The more you see,
The more you see,
The more you learn.

“The world is a book and those who don't travel read only one page”

St. Augustine

Why do people travel ?

- To visit new places;
- To meet people;
- To study;
- To practice English;
- To take part in festivals;
- To learn more about the culture and traditions.

People travel.....

Where can you get the information about travelling abroad?

- Newspapers
- Television
- Travel leaflets
- Tourist guides
- Internet
- Radios
- History books

I can get information from...

Thomas Cook

What do you need to go abroad?

- A passport
- A sleeping bag
- A ticket
- A visa
- A map
- A travel guide
- A health insurance
- A camera
- A first aid kit
- A money belt

I need .....

Who would you like to go to Britain with?

- With parents
- With friends
- With classmates
- With brothers and sisters
- With grandparents

I would like to go to England.....

What kind of transport can people travel by?

Plane

Bus

SHIP

BICYCLE

Car

TRAIN

People can travel by...

What is your favourite way of travelling?

My favourite way of travelling is travelling by...

Map of London

London consists of three parts:

the City of London

the West End

the East End

The City extends over an area of about 2.6 square kilometers in the heart of London. About half a million people work in the City but only less than 6000 live here.

The Queen

She was born in Windsor on 21 April 1926.

Her full name is Elizabeth-Mary-Alexander Windsor.

She was educated at home.

She was married Prince Philip in 1947.

She came to throne in 1952.

Elizabeth was crowned in Westminster Abbey on the 2nd of June in 1953.

The Underground

The tube -the 1st ever Underground railway system in the world.

It opened more than 100 years ago.

It has 300 underground stations and it is about 300 kilometers long.

The tube is used by hundreds of people who travel from the suburbs into central London every day.

The British Museum

and let thy feet
and thy hands
be set in midst of knowledge.

The British Museum is the largest and richest museum in the world.

It was founded in 1753. It has mountains of books.

It has a copy of every book published in this country.

The Tower of London

The Tower of London

The Tower of London

is a very old building.

It has more than 900 years old. English kings lived in it many years ago, but now it is a museum.

It was a fortress, a royal place and later a prison. The ravens are another famous sign. The legend says that without them the Tower will fall.

The Buckingham Palace

The Buckingham Palace-is the Royal residence. It was built in 1703. It is now the official home of Queen Elizabeth. There are nearly six hundred rooms and 3 miles of red carpet. Buckingham Palace is like a small town, with a police station, a hospital, a bar, a cinema and a swimming pool.

Westminster Abbey

Westminster Abbey

An aerial photograph of Westminster Abbey and the Elizabeth Tower (Big Ben) in London. The Elizabeth Tower is in the foreground on the left, showing its intricate Gothic architecture and two clock faces. Westminster Abbey is the large, light-colored Gothic cathedral in the center and right. The surrounding city of London is visible in the background, with various buildings and streets. A red double-decker bus is visible on a road in the lower foreground.

Big Ben

It is more than nine hundred years old. There are many monuments and statues there, many English kings and queens are buried there. It is famous for the Poet's Corner. It is one of the most famous and beautiful churches in London. This church has two tall towers. In 1952 Queen Elizabeth was crowned there.

The Houses of Parliament

The Houses of Parliament

The large clock in one of the towers is “Big Ben”. The members of the British Parliament Work in these buildings.

Double-decker

A telephone box

Sir Gilbert Scott designed a telephone box in the 1920s. In 1985 more of them were replaced with modern telephone boxes. People protested so much at the old ones were put back in London. Now you can see them.

Trafalgar Square

Some people say it is the most beautiful place in London. In the middle of the Square stands a tall column.

It is a monument to Admiral Nelson.

Four bronze lions look at the square from the monument. There are two beautiful fountains in the square.

Double-decker

Modern double-decker

Double-decker

a bus with two passenger decks. They are a common sight in Britain. London has more than three thousands double-deckers. At many seaside resorts Double-decker with an open top desk are used in the summer season for tourists.

Great Bell

The main bell, officially known as the Great Bell, is the largest bell in the tower and part of the Great Clock of Westminster. The bell is better known by the nickname Big Ben. People can get inside the Tower to see the works of Big Ben. Big Ben sticks every quarter of an hour.

There are many parks in London:

Hyde Park

Regent's Park

Green Park

St. James' Park

Kensington Gardens

London: Parting Glances

Buckingham Palace, Backyard

UNDERGROUND

SUBWAY

A large, brightly lit advertisement for McDonald's, featuring the golden arches logo and the word "McDonald's" in white on a red background.

A large, brightly lit advertisement for TD Bank, featuring the TD logo and the letters "TD" in white on a blue background, with the word "SAVING" in red below it.

The London Eye

The London Eye

is a top London attraction. It is situated on the River Thames, On a clear day you can see around 40km.

At 150 metres tall, you can look out and see over 55 of London's main attractions.

St Paul's Cathedral

is the greatest of English churches, was built in the 17th century. It is the place where heroes of war are buried. The inside of the cathedral is very beautiful. After looking around, you can climb 263 steps to the Whispering Gallery, above the library, which runs round the dome.

Thank you for your work!

