

PUZZLES OUT OF THE BARREL

1. How many birthdays does
the British Queen (Elizabeth II) have?

A) 1

B) 2

C) 3

1. How many birthdays does
the British Queen (Elizabeth II) have?

A) 1

B) 2

C) 3

2. You lived in London in 1890. You were a bad-reputed man and your behavior was so awful that soon everybody in London knew you and talked about you. When one began to behave badly, people said, "Oh, he behaves like..." and called him your name. Nowadays, people, especially parents or teachers, use your name to call those children who behave badly. Who are you?

- A) Lord Aristocrat
- B) Lord Hooligan
- C) Lord Chancellor

2. You lived in London in 1890. You were a bad-reputed man and your behavior was so awful that soon everybody in London knew you and talked about you. When one began to behave badly, people said, "Oh, he behaves like..." and called him your name. Nowadays, people, especially parents or teachers, use your name to call those children who behave badly. Who are you?

- A) Lord Aristocrat
- B) Lord Hooligan
- C) Lord Chancellor

3. According to the “status symbol” an American men must have one wife, two..., three..., four ..., five..., six..., seven and is lucky to have eight ... in his pocket?

3. According to the “status symbol” an American men must have one wife, two..., three..., four ..., five..., six..., seven and is lucky to have eight ... in his pocket?

(Pets, suits, children, cars, acres, credit cards, cents)

4. You are Paul McCartney. One morning you were preparing breakfast when a melody came to your mind. Later on it became one of the most popular songs of your group. Can you remember that morning? What were you cooking? What was this song?

4. You are Paul McCartney. One morning you were preparing breakfast when a melody came to your mind. Later on it became one of the most popular songs of your group. Can you remember that morning? What were you cooking? What was this song?

(I was making fried eggs and the song was "Yesterday")

5. Shakespeare, Spenser was her contemporaries. She was called the “Virgin Queen”. She never washed herself. Who was she?

5. Shakespeare, Spenser was her contemporaries. She was called the “Virgin Queen”. She never washed herself. Who was she?

(Elizabeth I)

“A dark horse”

Teams, be ready to guess and say what it means.

