

Parks of London

- There are over 150 parks and lots of small gardens and green sports places for everyone in London.
- Royal Parks are: Bushy Park, Green Park, Greenwich Park, Hyde Park, Kensington Gardens, Regent's Park, Richmond Park, St. James's Park.

The Royal Parks

In central London they include Hyde Park, Green Park, St. James's Park, Regent's Park and Kensington Gardens.

Regent's Park.

Here you will find world-famous London Zoo with more than 12,000 wild and domestic animals in it and a wonderful boating lake with lots of black swans,

The Regent's Park
A ROYAL PARK

St. James's Park.

It is also one of the Royal Parks. It is the oldest and the smallest of the royal parks. It is near Buckingham Palace.

Kensington Gardens

It is one of the most popular London parks. Hundreds of tourists come here to enjoy wonderful views

London Park Green
Park is the best place for rest and relaxing.

Battercy park.

*One of its main sights is a wonderful Japanese pagoda.
There is also a zoo for children where they can communicate with rare animals.*

WELCOME TO THE ROYAL PARKS!

