31 October is Hallowe'en

This festival celebrates the return of the souls of the dead.

People dress up as witches, devils, ghosts, cats or bats.

People decorate houses and yards

Pumpkin is the main symbol of Hallowe'en.
It is called Jack-o'-lantern.

Houses are decorated with pumpkins with candles inside them.

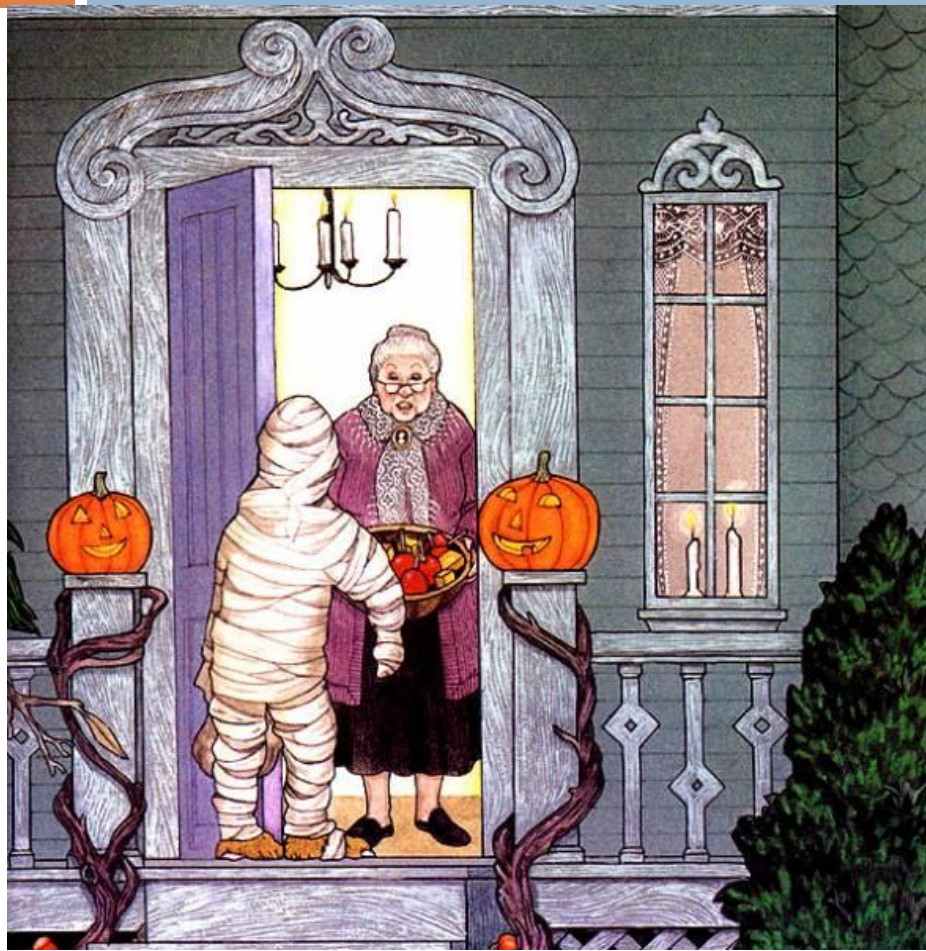

Children follow the American tradition
Trick or treat.

They knock at your door and ask “Trick or treat?”

If you give some money or some sweets
(treat) they go away.

If not, they can play a trick on you, like splashing water on your face.

People organize colorful costume parties.

People have family feasts at home.

They prepare different tasty things.

Haunted attractions take place on Hallowe'en.

They are very spectacular.

Grown-ups also like to participate.

The main song is «This is Hallowe'en»
by Danny Alfrman.
