THE POLITICAL SYSTEM OF GREAT BRITAIN

Task №2

Translate the text and retell

The House of Lords has more than 1,000 members, although only about 250 take an active part in the work of the House. The members of the House of Lords are not elected, they inherit their seats in Parliament. The chairman of the House of Lords is the Lord Chancellor and he sits on a special seat called the Woolsack. It shows that wool made England rich.

1) The House of Commons plays the main role in lawmaking. It consists of Parliament who are elected for a period of five years.

2) Members of the House of Commons belong to different political parties, and the party which gets the majority of seats in the House is called the ruling party, and the others – the opposition.

The Flag and The National Emblems of Great Britain

Роза Тюдоров

- «Роза Тюдоров» - еще одна широко известная геральдическая эмблема. Символизирует окончание разрушительной гражданской «войны алой и белой роз». Многолетнее противостояние завершилось восхождением на престол Генриха VII Тюдора. Его отец происходил из дома Ланкастеров, чьим символом была алая роза. Мать же была наследницей прежде враждебного дома Йорков, который символизировала белая роза.
