Dear Friends! Ladies and Gentlemen!

You are welcome to our party, dedicated to St. Valentine's Day, which is always held on February 14th and brings us happiness and good luck. St. Valentine is one of the popular holidays in Europe and America. It is the day, when boys and girls, sweethearts and lovers, husbands and wives, friends and neighbours, and even the office staff, exchange greetings of affection and love.

"Dance of love"

O Romeo, Romeo, wherefore art thou Romeo?
Deny thy father and refuse thy name;
Or, if thou wilt not, be but sworn my love,
And I'll no longer be a Capulet.
'Tis but thy name that is my enemy;
Thou art thyself, though not a Montague.
What's Montague? It is nor hand nor foot,
Nor arm nor face, nor any other part
Belonging to a man. O, be some other name!
What's in a name? That which we call a rose
By any other word would smell as sweet;
So Romeo would, were he not Romeo call'd,
Retain that dear perfection which he owes Without that title. Romeo, doff thy name,
And for thy name, which is no part of thee,
Take all myself.

It's All About Love! Let's translate it

One word frees us of all the weight and pain of life: that word is love.

"It takes a moment to tell someone you love them,
but it takes a lifetime to prove it"

"The madness of love is the greatest of heaven's blessings"

Love and kindness are never wasted.
They always make a difference. They bless the one who receives them, and they bless you, the giver.

Wake at dawn with a winged heart and give thanks for another day of loving.

"Love does not consist of gazing at each other,
but in looking outward together in the same direction"
