

The reasons of learning English

*To have another language is to possess a second soul
Carl the Great*

Prepared by: Yakova Amaliya, Kolesnikova Alina, students of 10 "B" class
Research supervisor: Morozova E. V.

Introduction

- Relevance: English is considered to be an international language of communication. Knowledge of a foreign language broadens the mind of a person, allow you to explore the culture and life of other people, increase personal status in society and open up a world of many possibilities.
- Hypothesis: we assume that familiarization with the reasons of learning English will encourage the younger generation to learn English.
- Purpose: to develop the main reasons of learning the language and identify the most relevant.

Basic reasons of learning English

□ Tourism

□ Digital Age

□ Business

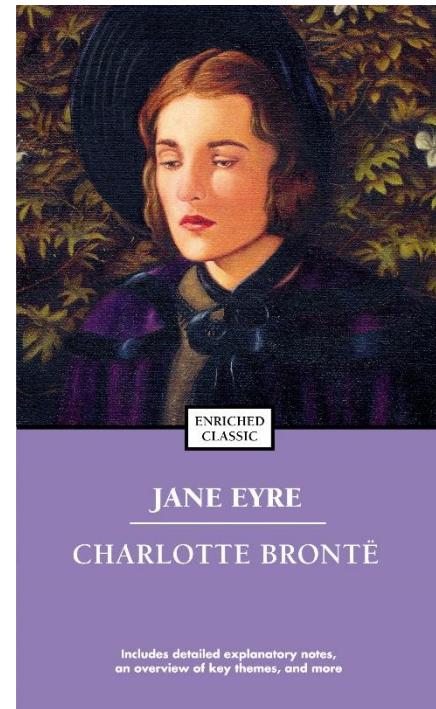

□ High level of education

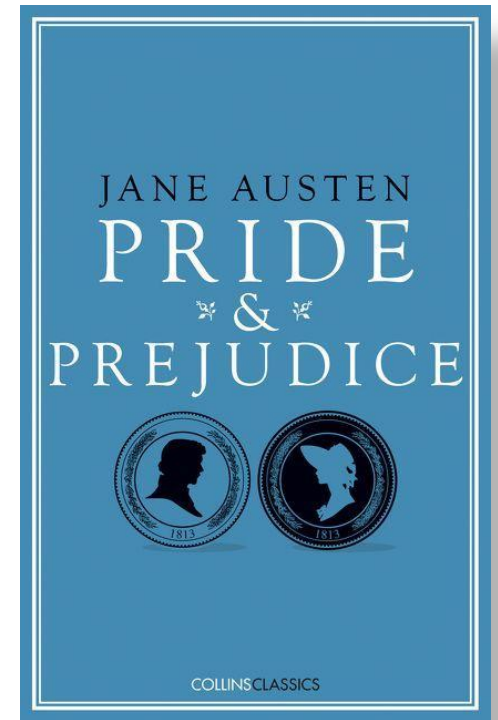

University of Oxford

□ English culture in original

“Jane Eyre”
by Charlotte Brontë

“Pride and Prejudice”
by Jane Austen

Practical part. Results

1. Do you learn English language out of school?

2. Will knowledge of English language be useful in your future?

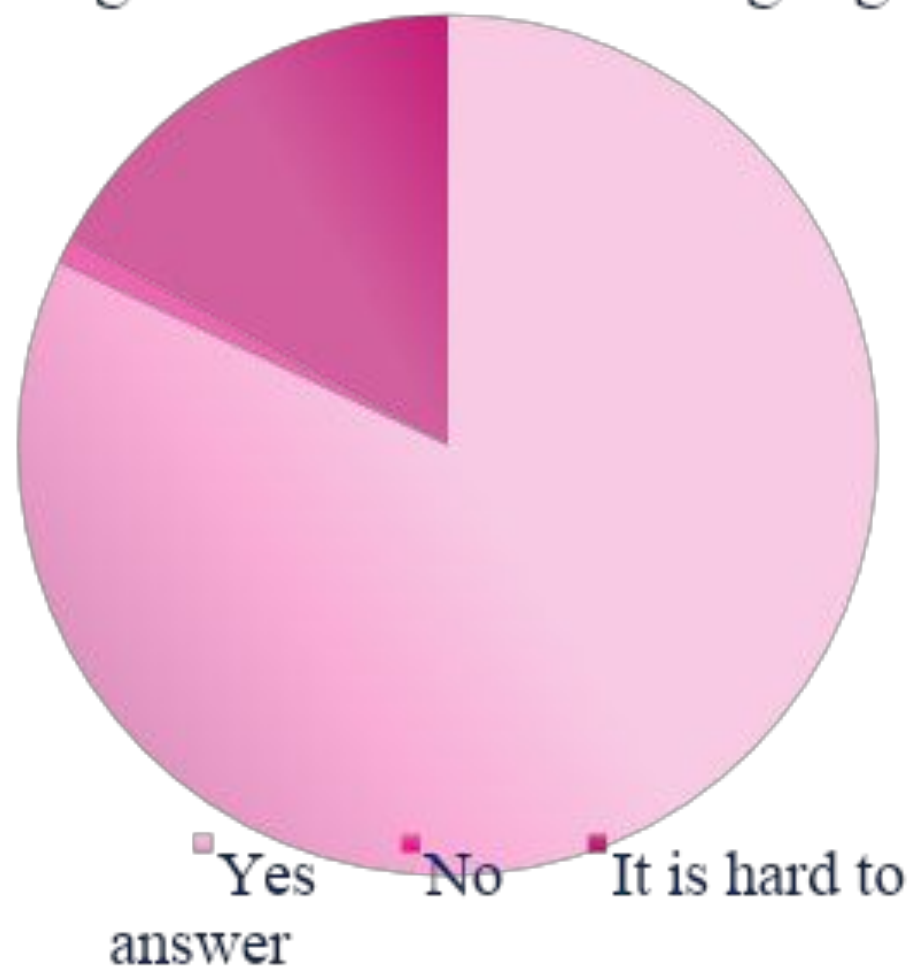

- Learning for overall development
- Learning for business
- Learning for tourism
- Learning for entering foreign university
- Learning for acquaintance with the English culture
- Learning for privileges in your future job
- Learning for further moving to English speaking country
- Your option

3. Tick the most relevant reasons of learning English.

4. Is English international language or not?

Summing up

1. Today most high school students try to learn English thoroughly both at school and outside it. Those students who have decided to link their profession with foreign languages have already been preparing for the exam and can enter the university successfully.
2. The majority of teenagers believe that knowledge of English can be beneficial in the future, because English is the international language which is used in all social spheres.
3. Today's generation believes that English is an international language. They understand the importance of English in modern life.
4. International travelling these days have become cheaper, quicker and more convenient for many people. Tourism plays a key role in learning English that means it is the most relevant reason of learning English. Also, teenagers choose English in order to travel, to get to know more about other cultures, customs and traditions.

Overall conclusion

We devoted our research to the reasons of learning English. In this project we have achieved the purpose: the most relevant reason of learning English is tourism.

"Do you speak English?" is a well-known and familiar phrase from school. It is hard to accept that many people being abroad often have to respond negatively to this question, because they have never paid enough attention to learning English. That was their huge mistake.

The world of great opportunities is open for a person who speaks English.

Learn
English

An aerial photograph of London, England, taken during the "golden hour" of sunset. The River Thames flows through the center of the frame. On the left bank, the Elizabeth Tower (Big Ben) is prominent, with its clock face visible. In the foreground, the intricate Gothic architecture of the Palace of Westminster is seen. On the right bank, the London Eye, a massive Ferris wheel, stands out against the sky. The city's skyline is filled with various buildings, and the sky is a mix of soft orange, yellow, and blue tones. The text "Thank you for attention!" is overlaid in a light blue, italicized font across the middle of the image.

Thank you for attention!