

What are we going to study on this lesson?

LITERARY GENRES

- Adventure stories
- Love stories
- Historical novels
- Travel books
- Detective stories
- Science fiction
- Social novels
- Humorous stories
- Biography

Does anybody know the author of this story?

- Oscar Wilde was a popular Irish poet, novelist and dramatist. He was born on October, 16 1854 in Dublin. After graduating from Oxford University, he lectured as a poet and art critic. His most famous works are: “ The Picture of Dorian Gray” and “The Importance of Being Earnest”, as well as some excellent short stories like “The Canterville Ghost”.

-
- When was Oscar Wilde born?
 - What did he do after graduating from Oxford University?
 - What are his most famous works?

Vocabulary

- to haunt- обитать
- Clank of metal- лязг металла
- strike a match- чиркнуть спичкой
- dressing case- несессер
- handcuffs- наручники
- rusty chains- ржавые цепи
- wrists and ankles- запястья и лодыжки
- need oiling- нуждаться в смазке

True/False

- ❑ 1. Mr. Otis woke up because of a clap of thunder.
- ❑ 2. It was exactly one o'clock.
- ❑ 3. Mr. Otis was nervous and frightened.
- ❑ 4. Right in front of him he saw a young man.
- ❑ 5. The man looked terrible.
- ❑ 6. Mr. Otis gave the ghost a bottle of lubricant.

Now let's put the events in the correct order.

- Mr. Otis woke up because of a noise outside his room.
- He looked terrible.
- Mr. Otis took a small bottle out of his dressing case and opened the door.
- It was exactly one o'clock.
- Right in front of him Mr Otis saw an old man.
- Mr. Otis gave the ghost a small bottle of lubricant to oil his chains.

- Mr. Otis woke up because of a noise outside his room.
- It was exactly one o'clock.
- Mr. Otis took a small bottle out of his dressing case and opened the door.
- Right in front of him Mr Otis saw an old man.
- He looked terrible.
- Mr. Otis gave the ghost a small bottle of lubricant to oil his chains.

Mr. Otis met the Canterville Ghost. What did they talk about? Let's act out a short dialogue between them.

Here is a list of phrases for you to use them in your dialogue:

- Sorry to say;
- to look terrible;
- to feel awful;
- to be afraid;
- the thing is.

Home assignment.

- We've got the picture of the Canterville Ghost. But what about Mr Otis? I'd like you to draw a picture of him and describe it. It will be your home assignment.

Reflection

Choose the drawing that reflects your mood.

The lesson was interesting.
I worked myself without teacher's help.

The lesson was interesting.
I worked with a little help from my teacher and friends

The lesson was interesting.
But it was difficult for me.

After this lesson I am...

1. great!

2. puzzled

4. discontented...

3. inspired!

5. enthusiastic

7. in love with English

6. tired

9. interested

8. frustrated

10. thankful