The Goal of Research

The Goal of the Research is to learn out more about people of Canada, their customs and traditions.

The tasks

The tasks are to learn books and articles about customs and traditions, to look for different examples of their descriptions in the original literature, to classify examples, to analyze, to raise interest and motivation to learning English.

The subject , the object

The subject of the research is Canada, the object is traditions and customs of Canada.

Canadians have respect for nature.

They don't throw out garbage under their feet or from the car. They keep cleanliness of the streets.

Happy New Year and Merry Christmas

Canadians celebrate these holidays in the street.

Easter

Main character of Easter in Canada is rabbit. It brings chocolate eggs.

Festival of tulips in Ottawa

Every year in May 5 millions tulips are in flower, although Ottawa is one of the coldest capitals.

The 25th of May is Victoria Day Holiday

This holiday is celebrated in honour of Victoria's birthday.

Canada Day

Canada Day is the main national holiday established in honor of association of all North American colonies of Britain in the uniform dominion of Canada.

Halloween

The 31st of October is a funny day for children. They keep running from one house to another and ask for sweets and apples.
