

Princess Diana Spencer

The story of her life

DIANA'S CHILDHOOD AND YOUTH

Diana Frances Spencer was born on 1 July, 1961 in the estate of the Spencers in Norfolk. Diana's parents were from aristocratic families.

When she was 16 she left for Switzerland and finished school there. Having returned, she lived with her friends in London, earning as a cook or a nanny, and then found the job of a teacher in a kindergarten.

THE STORY OF MEETING WITH PRINCE CHARLES

Lady Diana first met Charles, Prince of Wales, the Queen's eldest son when she was 16 in November 1977.

The Prince proposed on 6 February 1981, and Lady Diana accepted, but their engagement was kept secret for the next few weeks.

THE MARRIAGE OF DIANA AND CHARLES

Twenty-year-old Diana became Princess of Wales when she married the Prince of Wales on 29 July 1981 at St Paul's Cathedral.

The service was widely described as a "fairytale wedding" and was watched by a global television audience of 750 million people.

CHILDREN OF DIANA AND CHARLES

On 21 June 1982, the Princess gave birth to the couple's first son, Prince William.

A second son, Prince Harry, was born on 15 September 1984.

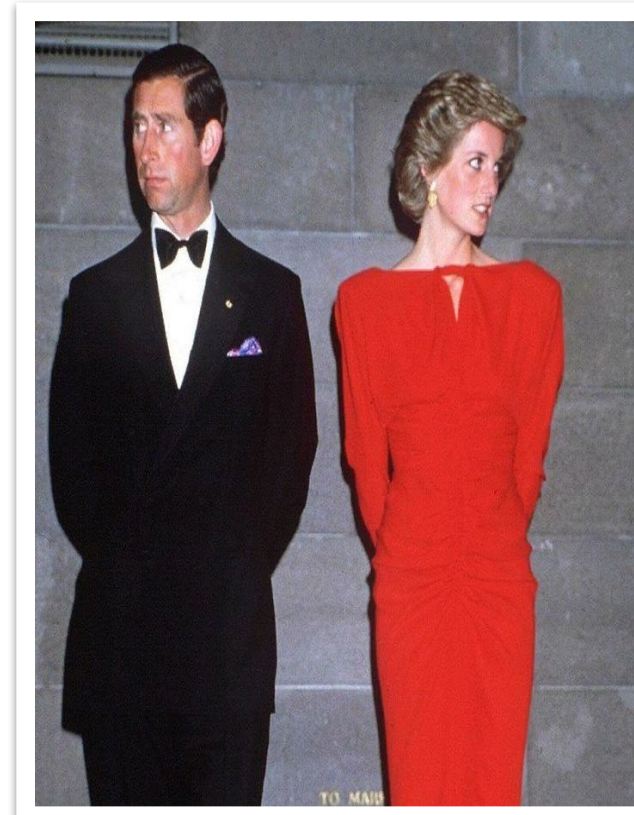

THE DIVORCE OF DIANA AND CHARLES

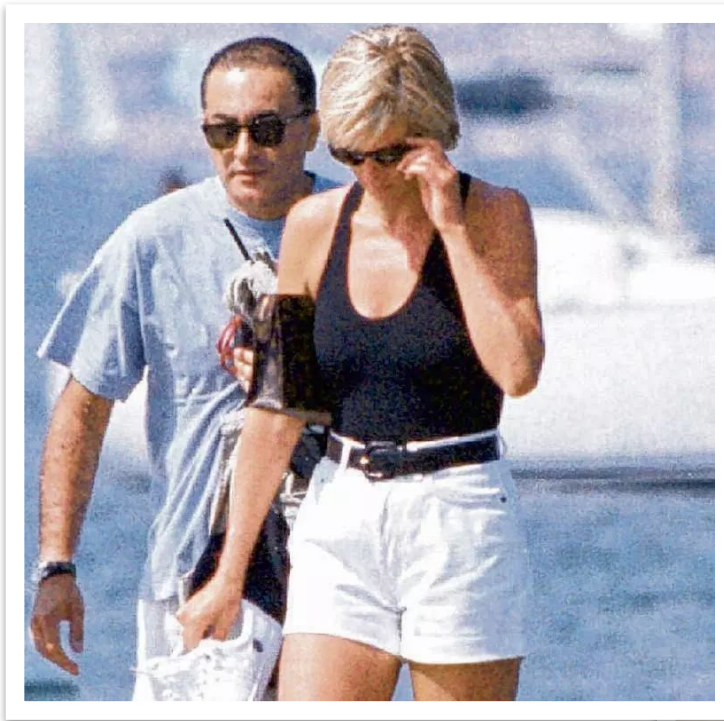

Diana and Charles divorced 12 years later, on 28 August 1996.

The couple signed a confidentiality agreement that prohibited them from discussing the details of the divorce or of their married life.

THE DEATH OF PRINCESS DIANA

Several last weeks of her life Princess Diana spent together with her friend Duddy Al-Fayed, the senior son of the Egyptian billionaire.

On 31 August 1997, Diana was killed in the car accident with Duddy in the road tunnel in Paris, France.

Diana's death was a great tragedy and loss for the whole British nation.

In her life she did a lot of charity all over the world and became the most popular and beloved figure of the royal family.

Her death is still full of mysteries.

THANKS FOR YOUR ATTENTION!