helping hand

to help another
person it is not necessary to be
strong and rich it is enough to be kind

The background features a warm, orange-to-yellow gradient. In the center, there is a faint white outline of a map of Russia. Two hands, rendered in a pink-to-red gradient, are positioned as if holding or supporting the map from below. The overall composition is centered and conveys a sense of care and assistance.
