My best friends.

I have three best friends and in combination , they are my classmates . Their name are Katya, Sveta and Mira. I am familiar with them from 15 September 2008. Together we began to make friends in the 5th grade . Before that, we were friends individually.

These morons
and idiots ,
but ...

All the same, I love them .

+ friends

But I still have friends, as if they are not the best of friends , but not the best of friends can not call them . With these friends I met somewhere in 2013, when I came to the club high school "Leader" . At first we were just classmates , but later we became good friends . Now we have common jokes and dreams .

When bad or sad
And suddenly felt terribly empty
Your friends
will save you, you know ... And everything will be
simple and bright ,
You earn drunk wind, Everything will be as you dream ...

We fight, we put up , but still remain the best of friends . And always will be.

So warm, so warm, with friends Disconnect the battery - still But give me your hand , I 'll warm it My girl , wrapped in my love So warm, so warm in their circle In our house, enough room for everyone And you're confident in each of them My friends , you are much more than...
