

Who is who?

Can you guess the writer?

1) An English poet and playwright, now widely regarded as the greatest writer of the English language. He is often called England's national poet and "The Bard".

William Shakespeare

2) Her work have given her the title the 'Queen of Crime' and made her one of the most important and innovative writers in the development of the genre.

Agatha Christie

3) He is better known by the pen name, was an English author, mathematician, logician and photographer. His most famous works are about a little girl.

Lewis Carroll

4) He was an English author, best known for the humorous novel. He was born on the corner of Bradford Street in Walsall where there is now a museum in his honour, and was brought up in poverty in London.

Jerome K. Jerome

5) In 2006, Forbes named this writer the second-richest entertainer in the world and ranked him as the forty-eighth most powerful celebrity of 2007

J. K. Rowling

6) He was an English author and poet, born in India, and best known for his works The Jungle Book, The Second Jungle Book

Rudyard Kipling

Brontë sisters

7) This is a group of writers who were relatives. Only one of them gained worldwide attention. He wrote a book which is popular even nowadays.

8) He was a British writer, journalist, and spy, who gained enduring fame for his novel about the man who had spent alone 28 years on the island.

Daniel Defoe

