The Houses of Parliament

Lord Mayor traditionally sits on the bag of wool in the Parliament.
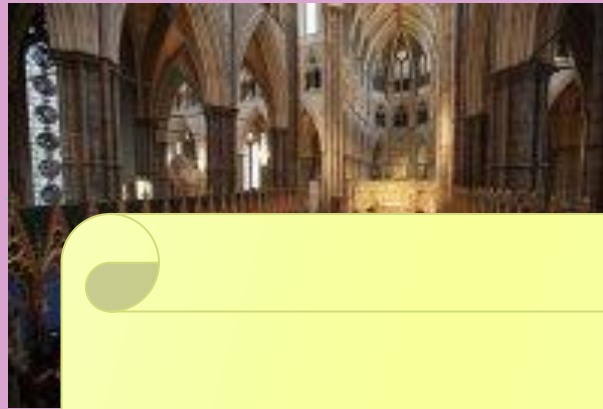

The other name of the Houses of Parliament is Westminster Palace. Westminster means monastery.
Westminster Abbey

About 2,500 people that were not kings have graves in a "Temple of Fame" in Westminster Abbey.
Geoffrey Chaucer, Sir Isaac Newton, Charles Darwin, Charles Dickens were buried there.
But the most regarded is the Grave of the Unknown Warrior.

The first church at the place of St. Paul's was built in 604 A.D.
