

A close-up photograph of a large, fully bloomed pink rose. The rose is the central focus, with many layers of delicate, light pink petals. It is surrounded by lush green leaves, some of which have a dark red or burgundy tint. The background is a soft-focus green lawn. The text "Going to Great Britain" is overlaid in a yellow, cursive font across the middle of the image.

Going to Great Britain

Check their home task

“WHICH TO KNOW BEFORE YOU

Learn a new words

1. Shy – ұялшак

2. Truth- шындық

3. Practice- жаттығу

4. a bed and breakfast - жеке үйдегі тамақ

5. Underground- метро

6. double – decker bus – екі қабатты автобус

7. Coach – автобус

8. Fast food – тез жасалатын тағамдар

Let's watch video together

Read the text. Find the modal verbs.

Going to Britain

Money: There are one hundred pence (100 p) in a pound (£). You can say “p” for “pence”, for example “eighty p.”

Where to stay: Hotels are expensive in Britain “a bed and breakfast” in someone’s house is cheaper. You can also stay at youth hostels.

Getting around: There are, of course, double – decker buses and you can get a good view from the top. There are also coaches between some towns. They are cheaper than trains.

There is also an underground (or tube) with more than 500 stations.

It is not easy to use, so you should learn before you use it.

Eating out: Restaurants are expensive and you cannot be sure the food is good. Pubs do good inexpensive food.

Fast food shops, hamburger shops are cheap.

Answer the questions

1. What money can you use in Britain?
2. Where can you stay when you are in Britain?
3. Where can you get a cheap meal in Britian?

Oleta Adams - If This Love Should Ever End

How ... I go on if this love ever end

How ... I stay strong, I just pretend

When everything inside of me
Says I'll never be this in love again

Oleta Adams - If This Love Should Ever End

How can I go on if this love should ever end

How can I stay strong, must I just pretend

When everything inside of me
Says I'll never be this in love
again

If this love should ever end

Britain is not a large country, but it is very beautiful. There are many interesting places in this charming country. Millions of tourists visit Britain every year and admire its beauty.

Come to Britain!

The real traffic light tree in London.
Height of the "tree" - 8 meters, the branches and leaves had real lights. On this tree "grows" 75 working lights

This statue to Peter Pan was built on May 1, 1912 in London's Park, not far from Kensington Palace

Newton sculpture is in front of the British Library.
Sculptor Eduardo Paolozzi built it in 1995.
Paolozzi has perhaps more works of public sculpture around London than any other artist

Unusual house is located on Oxford Street. Headington area residents saw the roof with the metal tail shark, a length of about 7.5 m

Home task EX.14 on page 132

