Read the letter and put down the names of the places of interest.

We walked through London's streets. We saw where all members of Parliament discuss the Kingdom's problems . Near this place we saw a very wonderful tower with a clock, , a beautiful bridge - ... which connect two banks of the river Thames.

Of course, we couldn't miss, the residence of the Queen and where many queens and kings were married or buried there.

At the last we saw ... This building was used as a tower, as a prison but now it's a museum.

Big Ben, Westminster Abbey, Tower Bridge,
