The infant school

The first school is the infant school, for children between five and six. At this stage the children become acquainted with class, desks in the form of games.

• Primary Schools

All children start primary school by the age of 7. Primary education lasts four years. The children learn to read, to write, and count

Secondary Schools

After four years of primary education children attend secondary school.

Children study compulsory (core) subjects:

- Kazakh, Russian, History,
- Mathematics.
- Examinations are taken at the end of the 9th and the 11th year.
- * .Some children may leave school after the 9th form and continue their education at vocational or
- * technical secondary schools or colleges.

At secondary education, pupils take GCSE (General Certificate of Secondary Education) examination.
On the results of this examination they receive a government grant to study at Universities and Institutes.

OUR SCHOOL UNIFORM

A school uniform came from Soviet-style school uniform.

Boys had special shirts, trousers, black boots and a cap. Girls wore brown dresses and aprons.

In our schools require pupils to wear uniforms. Boys wear a white shirt, school tie, black shoes.

Girls wear black or blue dresses with apron, black or white shoes
