

PHRASAL VERBS

S.A. Alenchikova

EL Teacher

School #16

Lubertsy

March, 2017

What do you think phrasal verbs are?

Phrasal verbs = verb + particle (s) (preposition(s))

When do we use phrasal verbs?

Phrasal verbs are very common, especially in spoken language.

Use Phrasal Verbs
to be a Fluent
English Speaker

Phrasal verbs:

go after

go down with go without

go off

go up

go through

go with

Go after – chase smb

Go down with – became ill

Go off- to break down,
to become bad

Go through- to get an experience

Go up- to increase

Go with – to match

Go without-to lack,
not have

Go after

The police officer is going after the bank robber.

Go down with

Mary went down with the flu yesterday so she stayed in bed.

Go off

This cheese smells strange.
It's probably gone off.

Go through

Jane has gone through a rough time at work.

Go up

The price of petrol has gone up again.

Go with

Does this green dress go with my eyes?

Go without

It is difficult to go without an umbrella when it rains.

Fill in:

after with off

up without down with through

1. Camels can go .....water longer than any other animals.
2. The price of cheese has gone .....again.
3. My aunt went ..... a flu a week ago.
4. A very big dog went .....our kitten.
5. Does this purple T-shirt go .....my black trousers?
6. He is unhappy. He has gone .....a very difficult time.
7. This milk smells strange. It's probably gone .....

YOUR HOMEWORK:

1)* Write down 7-10 sentences with
phrasal verbs

**Write down a short story with phrasal verbs

2) Make your own page for your vocabulary and draw pictures to explain the meaning of phrasal verbs

THANK YOU FOR YOUR ATTENTION