

How I Spent My Summer

Let's make comic strips

comic strip

a set of pictures telling a story,
usually in a newspaper

КОМУКС

Plan

- 1. Talk about our summer vacations.
- 2. Discuss rules for making comic strips.
- 3. Make some comic strips.

At the Sea-Side

by Robert Louis Stevenson

When I was down beside the sea
A wooden spade they gave to me
To dig the sandy shore.

My holes were empty like a cup.
In every hole the sea came up,
Till it could come no more.

Rules for comic strip

- Design and dress fully poseable characters.
- Give them words, actions and emotions.
- Add scenes and props, your own images.
- Share, remix, collaborate and comment!

Summer jobs may be divided into three distinct categories; the good, the bad, and the ugly.

The good.

The bad.

Summer jobs

The ugly.

During the first day of school.

Hey guys! How was your summer?

My summer was great! I was a lifeguard!

The good summer job.

My job paid well, the hours were not bad and I had a lot of fun.

Seems like you had a good summer job. I cleaned city streets during my summer.

My job was boring, repetitive and depressing. The only good thing was that it made me eager to go back to school.

The bad summer job.

That's a really bad job, but I think I had the ugliest job ever. I was a busboy with an evil boss.

The ugly summer job.

Go clean the washroom!

But it's the girl's washroom!

Wow. That is terrible. I hope I get a good full time job when I'm older. I've got enough of bad summer jobs.

Yeah!

Me too!

My Summer Vacation

My family visited my grandparents at their cottage in Nova Scotia. It took two very long days of driving to get there. I didn't like that part. I did like staying at the cottage.

The cottage is not very big but over the summer my cousins also visit at other times so they have extra beds for visitors. My sister and I shared a bunk bed and we got up when the sun came up.

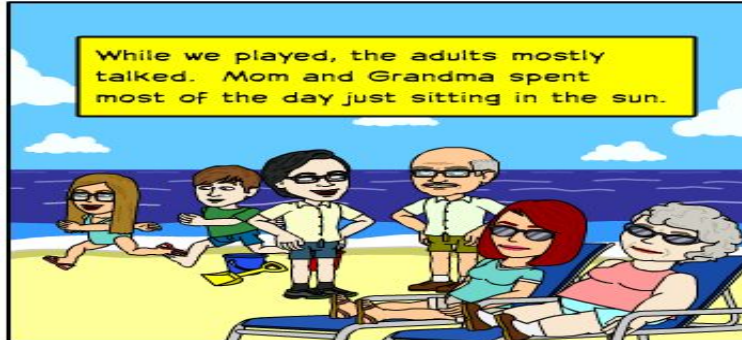

My grandmother made us all a big breakfast but we couldn't wait to go to the beach. We went after we ate but not before Mom put lots of sunblock on us.

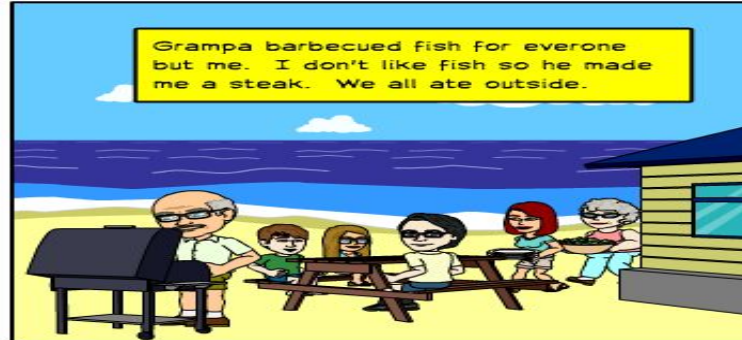

We swam and played in the sand all day. I collected things on the beach. At low tide, Grandpa, Dad and me looked for mussels and clams in the sand.

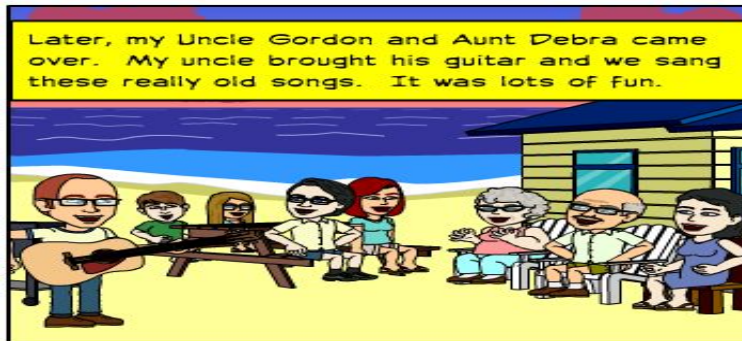

While we played, the adults mostly talked. Mom and Grandma spent most of the day just sitting in the sun.

Grampa barbecued fish for everyone but me. I don't like fish so he made me a steak. We all ate outside.

Later, my Uncle Gordon and Aunt Debra came over. My uncle brought his guitar and we sang these really old songs. It was lots of fun.

My sister and I started yawning so my parents sent us to bed. I was so tired I fell asleep almost before I pulled the covers over me.

I liked it because...

How did you
like the lesson?

The lesson wasn't interesting for me because ...

I can't answer
because...

Your homework

- Draw a comic strip about your summer vacation or the best day of it.

or

- Write a composition “How I spent my summer holidays”

Thank you for your work!

Have a nice day!
