

NEW YORK CITY

Although New York City is not the capital of the United States, its influence is seen throughout the world.

Its nickname, "The Big Apple" was given to it by early immigrants because the city seemed so huge and full of promise.

New- York

It offers the best, the biggest and the brightest of everything.

It has a lot of places of interest.

The symbol of the city is THE STATUE OF LIBERTY

Metropolitan Museum of Art

The Metropolitan Museum of Art is one of the world's largest and most important art museums. It contains more than two million works of art, divided into nineteen departments.

Central Park

Central Park is the most visited city park in the United States, the most famous city parks in the world. Central Park contains several artificial lakes, two ice-skating rinks, and grassy areas and playgrounds for children.

Times Square

Times Square is at the junction of Broadway and Seventh Avenue. Smaller than Red Square in Moscow or Trafalgar Square in London, Times Square has achieved the status of an iconic world landmark and has become a symbol of the city. Times Square is principally defined by its animated, digital advertisements.

Broadway

The city's 39 largest theatres are collectively known as "Broadway". Broadway theatre is the most prestigious form of professional theatre in the U.S., as well as the best known to the general public.

Fifth Avenue

New York's Fifth Avenue is best known as a shopping street. There are enough shopping opportunities on Fifth Avenue to satisfy everyone's taste.
