

Our today's topic is

...

? ? ?

British Holidays

New words:

Send special cards, give each other presents, bring good luck, Christmas tree, decorations, dress as ghosts and witches, special dinner, burn a model, pancakes, Pancake Races, not to sign the card, to guess, roast turkey, silver coin

Holiday /festival	Date	Other info
		burn a model of Guy Fawkes
2.Pancake Day	February
3.	the 14 th of February
4.		children dress up as witches
5. Christmas
6.	the 1 st of January

People celebrate New Year on the 5th of November. They give each other flowers, chocolate and cards which they don't sign. Halloween is one of the best holidays for children. It is celebrated on the 14th of February. Children go to Trafalgar Square and have fun all night long. Christmas is celebrated on the 31st of December. On this day we dress as witches and ghosts, burn fireworks and a model of Guy Fawkes. The typical family festival is Pancake Day. Families decorate their houses, cook holiday dinner with roast turkey and pudding. Guy Fawkes' Night is on the 25th of December. People have fun and eat a lot of pancakes.

HOME TASK

“Excellent” – a presentation about favorite holiday

“Good” – a essay about famous Russian Holidays

“Sat” – a table with comparison of any 6 British and Russian Holidays