Do you still think that all the Russian cities are cold and snowy? Russian people must wear a furcoat and valenki? Russians are busy with drinking vodka and playing balalaikas? Or wild bears usually walk along the streets?

Sochi is the best example to demonstrate that the reality of our life is very far from this stereotypical understanding of Russian places.

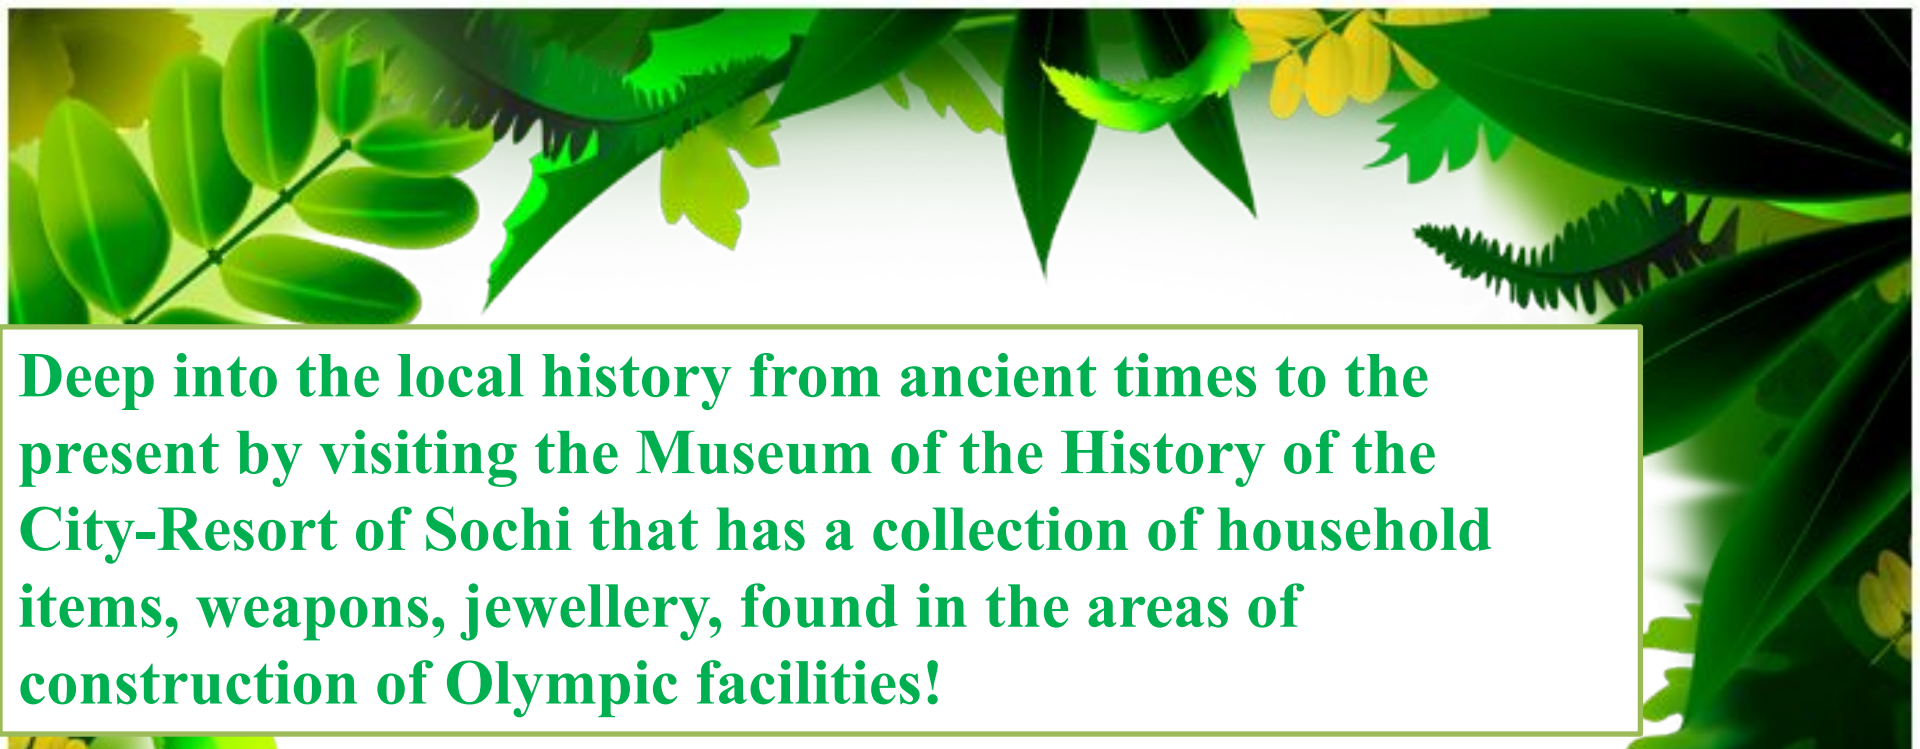

A tropical beach scene with palm trees, a sandy shore, and a blue sky with clouds. The text is overlaid on the image.

Sochi is one of the world's largest cities .This subtropical city is home to an abundance of historical, cultural and natural landmarks, typical and untypical for Russia. It's a great place to visit. Five million people visit it every year.

If you are tired of sunbathing and sea beaches, do not miss the opportunity to visit one of the most popular museums of Sochi in the open air/ This is an exciting place where the subjects of the exposition are the flowers the plants of various kinds that one can ever admire. It is the Sochi park “Dendrary”.

Park “Riviera”, situated in the center of Sochi, is the famous resort attraction park not only for the guests
but also for its citizens.

Here you can find “Big Sochi Dolphinarium”, Aquarium and numerous attractions for children.

Mount Achun

Is Sochi just a resort and Olympic city or has it got a historical value? The answer is found when going to one of its famous destinations, the Green Grove on the slope of Mount Achun.

It is located in a picturesque place within the city limits. The Achun is the highest point in the city, 663m above the sea level.

After the construction of Akhun road thousands of visitors have got the opportunity to admire a fabulous view from the observation tower which is on top of the mount.

Stalin's villa

As for Stalin's villa it has become accessible for the visitors since the 80s and has preserved the atmosphere of the 30s. So, this is a trip for the lovers of history and nature. A cup of tea from an authentic Russian samovar is your award after descending the Akhun tower. While driving to the main destinations you will also be able to get a glimpse of a city.

We can also visit a coastal cluster with the Olympic Park. That's where 5 magnificent ice palaces and a new stadium for holding the world football championship 2018 are to be found. Cutting-edge technologies have been used to create the venues for figure skating, curling, ice-hockey and speed-skating. Does the Olympic budget meet the expectations?- Let us go and see!

Seeing Olympic sites and its venues is an unforgettable experience for everybody.

11 Olympic venues are grouped into 2 clusters.

A former City of Romanovsk, named after Russian Tsar has turned into a Mountain cluster, located 650 m. a. s. l. in the valley of the Mzymta River. You will see Brand new mountain cities and old traditional villages on the way to Krasnaya Poliana (Red Glade), which was the official Holder of the 2014 alpine ski events. A lift by ropeway is also on offer.

A vibrant tropical beach scene. In the foreground, a sandy beach is partially covered by the fronds of palm trees. The ocean is a deep turquoise color, with white waves breaking onto the shore. The sky is a clear, bright blue with scattered white clouds. The overall atmosphere is sunny and relaxing.

All in all, Sochi is worth visiting. It is an ideal place for spending holidays!

A vibrant tropical beach scene. In the foreground, a martini glass filled with an orange cocktail and a lime wedge sits on a white napkin. Next to it are several seashells, including a large scallop and a colorful conch shell. A heart is drawn in the sand. The background shows a clear blue sky with white clouds, a turquoise ocean, and a palm tree frond. Three overlapping silver frames are positioned in the center, with the text 'Thank you for your attention!' written in yellow. A string of white lights is visible in the upper right corner.
