A close-up photograph of a monkey's face, looking directly at the camera through vertical metal bars. The monkey's eyes are large and dark, and its fur is a mix of brown and grey. The background is blurred, suggesting an outdoor enclosure. The text "London Zoo" is overlaid in red on the left side of the image.
