

Species – a class of plants or animals.

Fir-trees are large trees, reaching heights of 10–80 m tall

The oak tree is a flowering plant. The oak is a common symbol of strength, has been chosen as the national tree of many countries.

Pine trees are evergreen, growing 3–80 m tall.

Wild mushrooms can appear either below ground or above ground where they may be picked by hand.

Mosses are small flowerless plants that typically grow in dense green clumps or mats, often in damp or shady locations.

Ash is a genus of flowering plants in the olive and lilac family. It contains 45–65 species of usually medium to large trees.

Snakes are legless. They can be from 10 cm to 13 metres long.

The pike was a long weapon, from 3 to 7.5 metres long.

Trout are closely related to salmon. Trout are usually found in cool (50–60 °F or 10–16 °C), clear streams and lakes

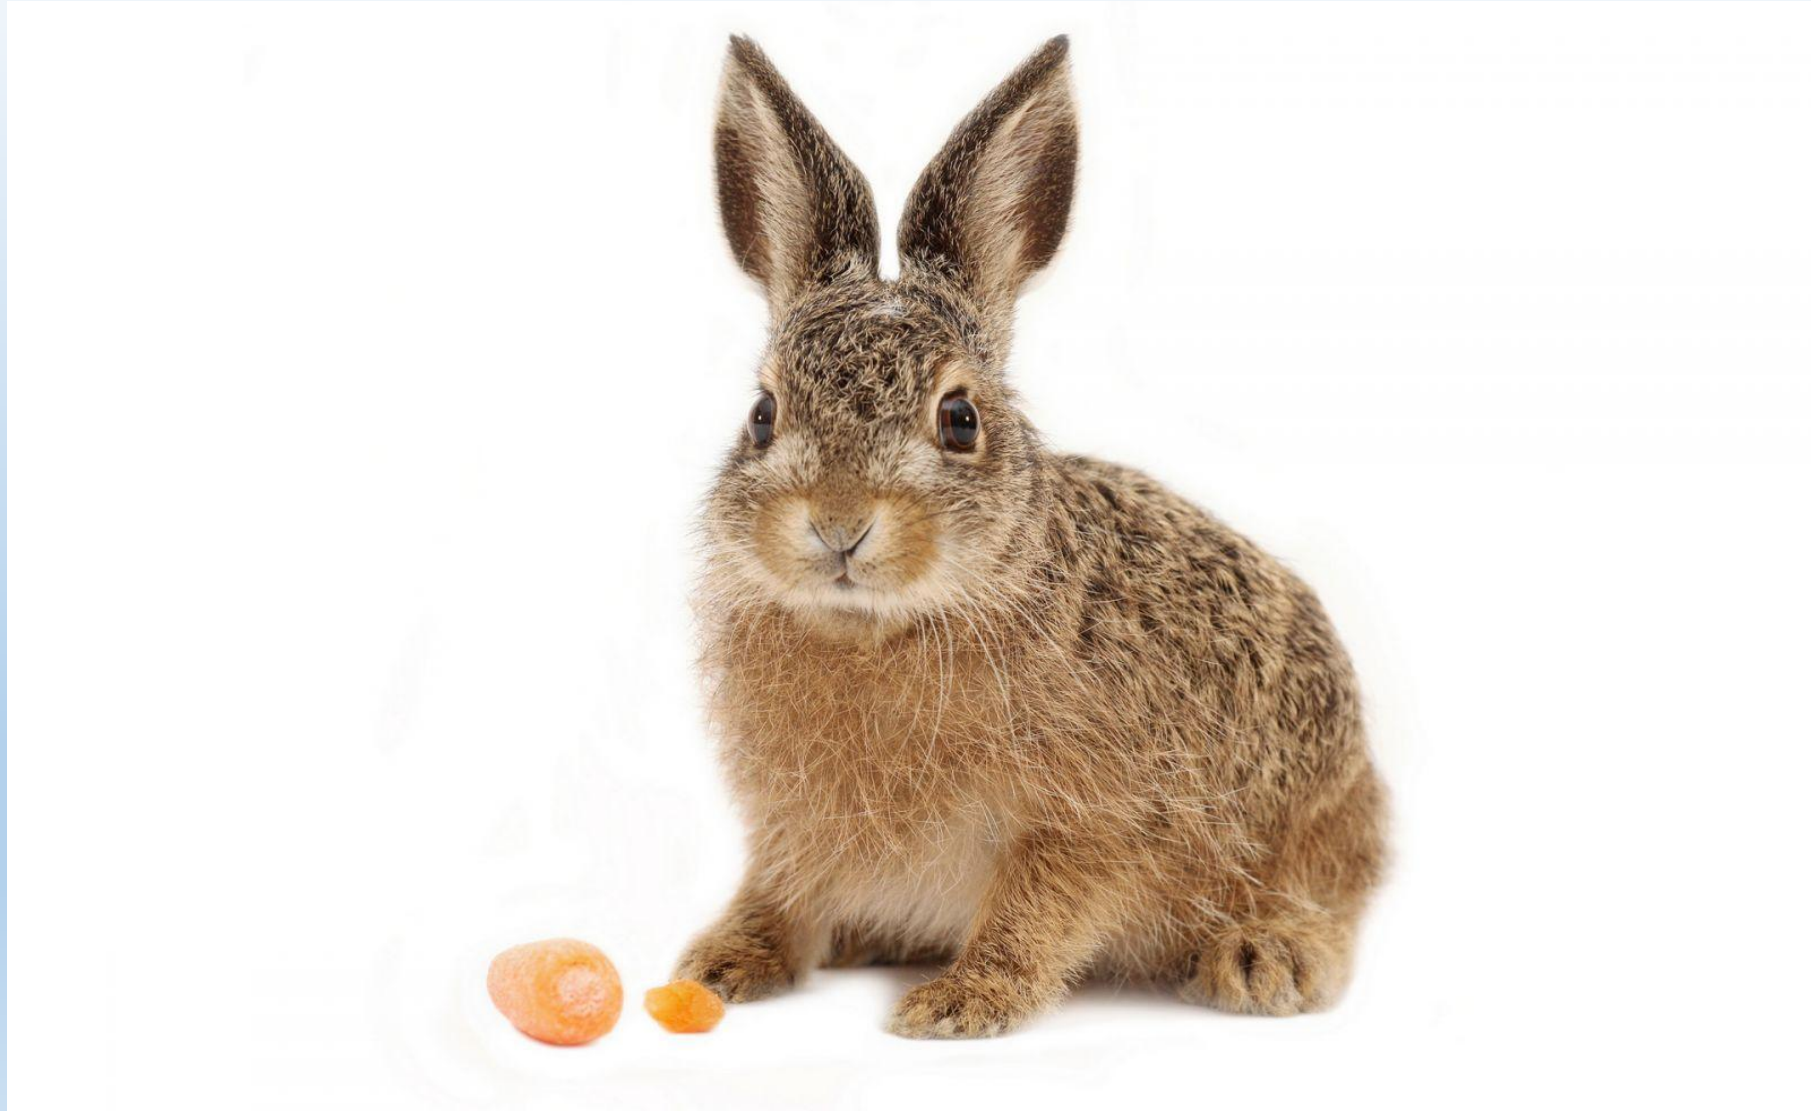

Eels are elongated fish, ranging in length from 5 cm to 4 m

The European bison is the heaviest wild land animal in Europe; a typical European bison is about 3 m long

Hares are swift animals : they can run up to 56 km/h

Wolves live, travel and hunt in packs of 7 to 8 animals on average.

Deer live in a variety of land habitats, ranging from tundra to the tropical rainforest

Elk is one of the largest species within the deer family

Beavers are known for building dams, canals, and lodges (homes)

Wild boar is also known as the wild swine or Eurasian wild pig

There are ... species of trees and about ... species of plants and mushrooms in Belarus.

111 species of trees

12 000 species of plants

Some oaks in Belovezhskaya Pushcha are from ...
to ... years old.

...from 300 to 700
years old

More than ... species of animals live in the wilds of our country: elks, wild boars, deer, wolves, hares and beavers.

More than 30 000 species of animals...

There are also about
... species of fish and
... species of birds in our republic.

... about 60 species
of fish and 305
species of birds...

In Pripyatsky National Park you can see ... moss species!

... 200 moss
species.