

Burns Night

25th January

25 January 1759 - 21 July 1796

R. Burns was a Scottish poet and lyricist. He was the national poet of Scotland and is celebrated worldwide. He is the best known of the poets who have written in the Scots and English language.

Burns Night

Burns Birthday (25th January) is a national holiday in Scotland. Its name Burns Night or Burns Supper. This is a traditional dinner with the order of the dishes sung by the poet, brought in to the music of the Scottish bagpipe and reading lyrics of Burns (by the afternoon prayer “The Selkirk Grace” and “Ode to Haggis”).

Burns Night

During the meal sounds other poems, jokes and torches in the world of a world-famous poet. At the end of the evening guests stand and take each other`s hands and sing "Have a good time". It means the end of the holiday.

Burns Night

GRACE BEFORE MEAL

Some hae meat and canna eat, some wad eat that want it, but we hae meat, an we can eat, and sae the Lord be thankit.

(by R. Burns)

Заздравный тост

У которых есть, что есть,
- те подчас не могут
есть, А другие могут
есть, да сидят без хлеба.
А у нас тут есть, что
есть, да при этом есть, чем есть, - Значит, нам благодарить остаётся небо!

(Перевод С.Маршака)

Burns Night

Ode to Haggis

Fair fa' your honest,
sonsie face,
Great chieftain o' the puddin-race!
Aboon them a' ye tak
your place,
Painch, tripe, or thairm: Weel are ye wordy o' a grace
As lang's my arm...

(by R. Burns)

Ода шотландскому пудингу «Хаггис»

В тебе я славлю командира Всех пудингов горячих мира, - Могучий Хаггис, полный жира И требухи. Строчу, пока мне служит лира,
Тебе стихи.

(Перевод С.Маршака)

Thank you for your attention!
