

 Ecological organizations in Russia

*Greenpeace is an international public environmental organization founded in Vancouver, Canada September 15, 1971 David McTaggart. The main goal of the organization to achieve solutions of global environmental problems, attracting attention of public and authorities. Greenpeace exists only through donations from supporters and fundamentally does not accept financial assistance from government agencies, political parties or business. Greenpeace against violence in any form, all the shares would not tolerate any form of violence as a method of achieving goals.

The logo consists of the word "GREENPEACE" in a white, bold, sans-serif font, centered on a solid green rectangular background.

Greenpeace

*The world wildlife Fund (World Wide Fund for Nature) is an international independent public organization working in the fields relating to the conservation, research and restoration of the environment. The organization has more than 5 million supporters worldwide, WWF works in more than 90 countries and supporting around 1,300 conservation and environmental projects around the world. The mission of the world wildlife Fund is to stop the degradation of the natural environment and achieve harmony between man and nature. The main goal of maintaining Earth's biological diversity.

Wildlife Fund (WWF)

*International Socio-ecological Union is an international environmental organization founded in December 1988. At the moment, ISEU is more than 10 thousand people from 17 countries. The main idea of ISEU is to bring together people who care what happens to Land, its nature and culture, its people, our children and grandchildren..

International socio-ecological Union

* Bellona (Bellona) - the international ecological Association. The Central office of the Association located in the capital of Norway – Oslo. Association "Bellona" began its work as an NGO in 1986. More than 20 years of experience Bellona has become a major environmental expert organisation, whose main aim is the fight against environmental destruction, threats to human health caused by pollution and negative environmental consequences of specific strategies of global economic development. In April 1998, was established by the St. Petersburg public organization "Environmental human rights Center "Bellona", which is the St. Petersburg office of the international ecological Association "Bellona". The organization is based on the belief that human rights to live in a healthy environment and to have reliable environmental information is a fundamental right of every person, as these rights relate to the most valuable - health and life of people

 The international environmental organization
"Bellona"

BELLONA

*Green Cross international (Green Cross International, GCI) is an environmental organization founded by former Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev in 1993, on the basis of the agreements reached at the Global Forum in 1992 in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Green Cross is a non governmental and nonprofit organization.

Green cross