Alexander.

«Alexander»— historical film directed by Oliver Stone about the life and death of the Commander of Alexander the great.

The movie tells the story of friendship, love, betrayal, and about human life, subsequently became great.

plot.

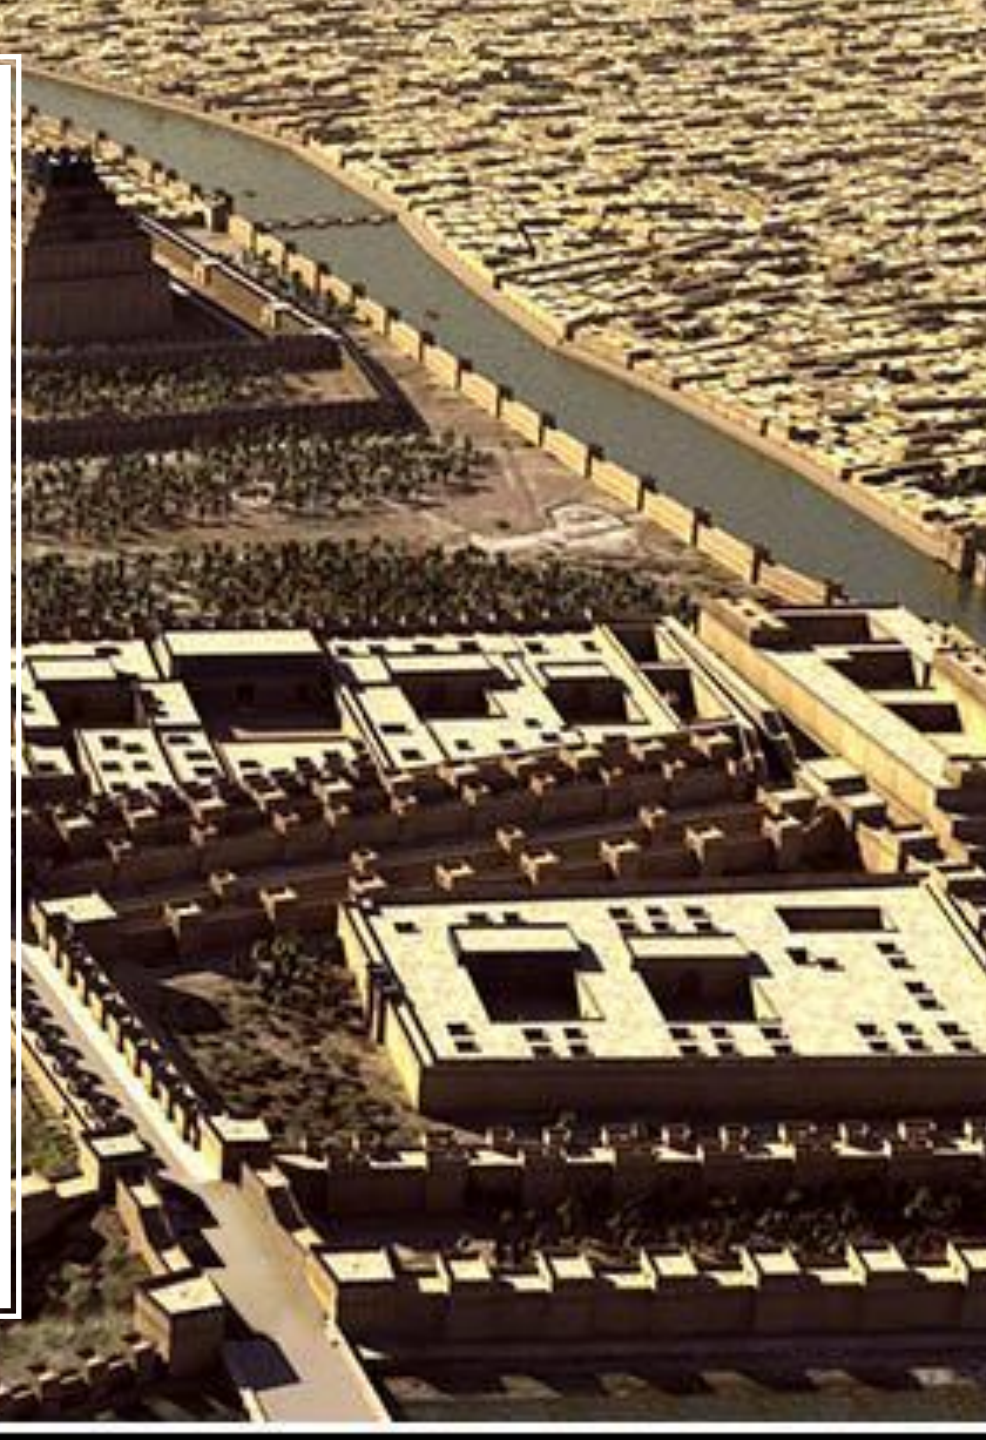

The story of Alexander tells the elderly Ptolemy Lag, who was once his colleague and became the King of Egypt, and focuses primarily on the conquest of Alexander of Persia and India. Events are taking place against the background of the personal life of the great Commander. In 20 years the King of Macedonia, Alexander for 13 years reign conquered most of the known civilized world at that time. Director trying to comprehend such a brilliant success and fate of Alexander, who admired him, as God.

In the film, although not in some detail with historical accuracy, showing two battles: the battle of gaugamela and the Persian King Darius III Kodomanom and the river Hidaspin with the Indian King Horn.

At the beginning of the film tells about parents of Ptolemy Alexander the great-King of Macedonia, Philip II and his wife Jepirskuju Olympiad and shared an unsuccessful life. Shows how Alexander studied with the philosopher Aristotle, bucefal spoke at the Piru quarrelled with his father. As a result, Philip II dies at the hands of bodyguard-lover Pausanias, Alexander becomes King of Macedonia and Olympias, on which Palo suspicion of murder put massacre of newly minted King's wife and her child..

The latter shares power with his old Commander Antipatrom-the father of a young military Cassandra and Alexander embarks on a crusade to the East, in the course of which inflicts a decisive defeat on the Persians at Gaugamela, and captures Babylon. Young and invincible King declares Babylon the capital of his new empire and immediately gives security guarantees daughter Daria Kodomana Statire that marks the beginning of the Eastern policy of the Tsar. Alexander soon buries found them murdered satrap-traitor Bessom Darius, invades Bactria and Sogdia and there on Piru sees Princess Roxana among dancers. He intends to marry Roxana, but this causes opposition from military commanders, and Cassander comes into conflict with the King.

Despite this, Alexander marries Roxana, with Princess itself originally did not want to marry konsumirovat', and attempted to kill the King with a dagger. Alexander soon satisfied repressions against comrades — Parmenion and his son, Filoty, and Filotu are executed after a trial and Parmenion was killed by the hands of Antigonus Cyclops-Imperial Commander. The invincible King of the Hindu Kush mountains and leads overcomes the army of the Indus Valley, but his bereavement. At Piru Alexander kills during an argument on the feast of its ally and friend Black Klita, moreover, he makes his favorite persa Bagoja, who noticed the King of Macedonia, still in Babylon. Soon the Macedonian army wins the battle with the Indian King Horn, during which Alexander gets wounded and Bucephalus dies. In the end, the Macedonian King, realizing all the difficulties of its army during the long and grueling campaign, returned to Babylon. There are dying from the illness of the King's closest friend Hephæstion and Alexander himself and soon dies.

At the end of the film, Ptolemy completes the story that tells her slave-Secretary about the fate of the family of Alexander and his empire.
