

The background features a vibrant, abstract composition of overlapping, semi-transparent geometric shapes. On the left side, there are prominent blue and purple 3D cubes and rectangular prisms. The center and right side are dominated by a variety of squares and rectangles in shades of pink, red, orange, and yellow, some appearing as outlines and others as solid, layered shapes. The overall effect is a dynamic, multi-colored collage.

Manners in Different Countries

- They will not communicate with you, if they don't know your name

ENGLAND

LONDON

WESTMINSTER

- A very important part of life is the tea ceremony, during which you should smile and talk about the good.

CHINA

- When you come to visit somebody, you should bring a gift: a cake or flowers and also you can bring some juice of fresh fruit or home-made cheese.

Greece

- Do not hurry while you are eating!

France

- There is a tourist police.

🇹🇷 Turkey

- Do not talk about the work after the working day!

ENGLAND

LONDON

WESTMINSTER

- They believe the left hand is unclean, and touch it to anyone means a serious insult.

- They believe that smoking and alcohol are for the poor and losers.

