

St. Seraphim of Sarov

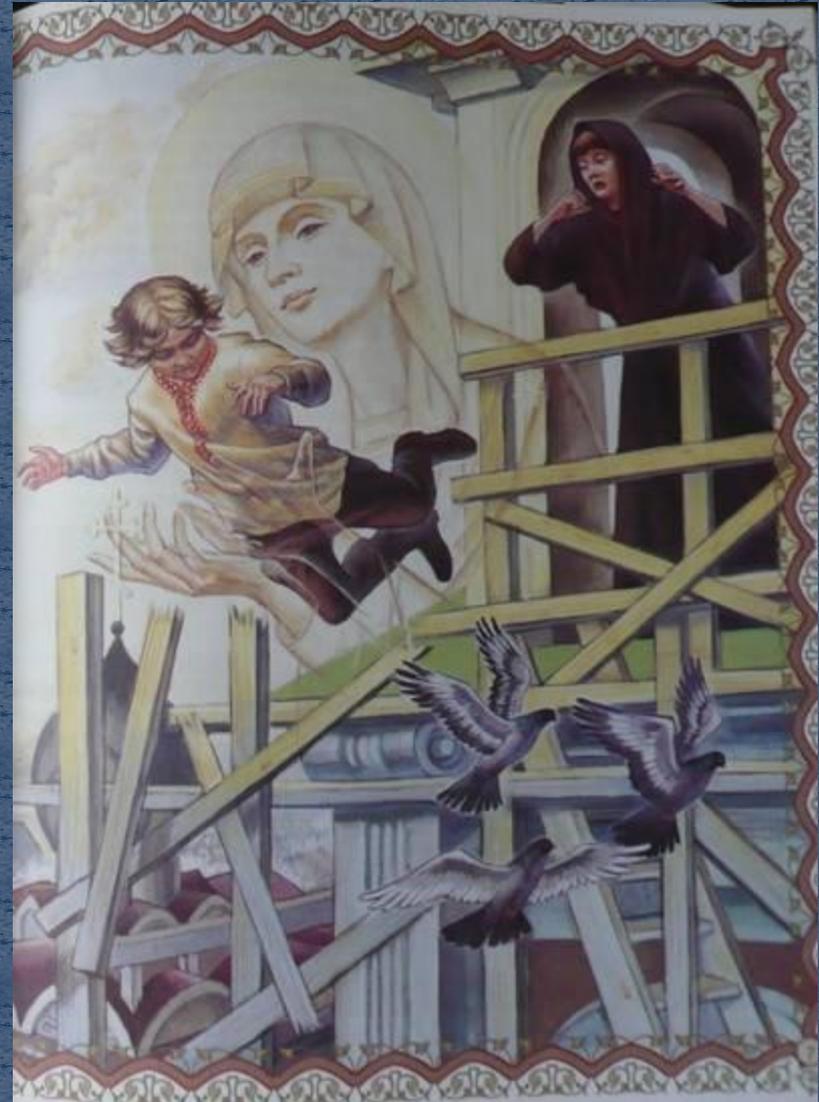

● 1 August 1754 – 14 January 1833

The Holy Spring of Father Seraphim.

- In Kursk in July 1754 in a pious merchant family, Isidor and Agafia Mosnin the son was born, who was named Prokhor.
- Once the seven-year Prokhor climbed to the unfinished bell tower, slipped and fell down from a great height, but remained unharmed.

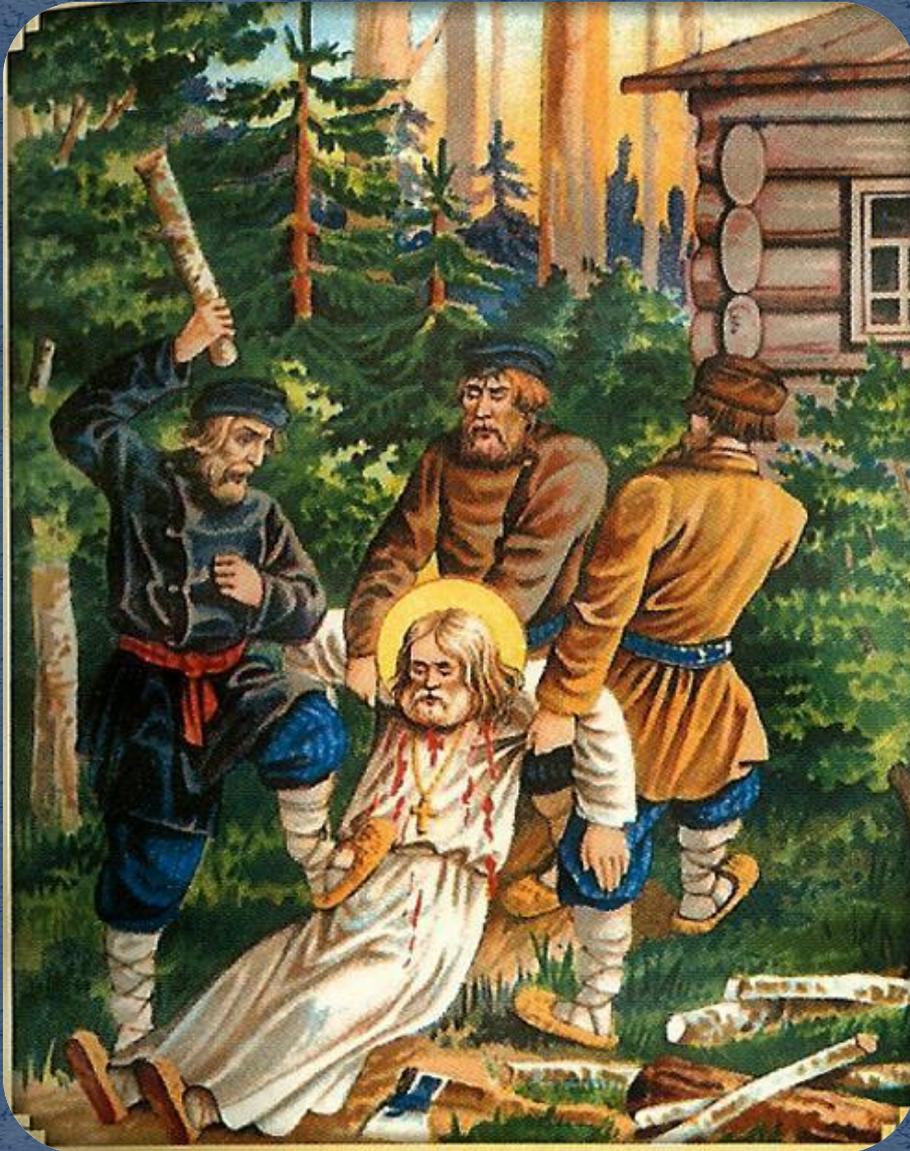

St. Seraphim of Sarov

- Prokhor loved prayer, solitude, reading Holy books. He wanted to be with God every hour and wanted to enter the monastery. When the boy was 17 years old, he went to Kiev. The elder Dositheus of Kiev-Pechersk hermit, blessed Prochorus to go to the Sarov monastery.

Father Seraphim left the hermit and began to accept people. He said to everybody : - Christ is risen, my joy! His love for people and spiritual insight attracted a lot of people. He used to talk with children.

When St. Seraphim was praying in the woods the , he was attacked by three robbers. Father Seraphim did not resist, although he was sturdy and strong.

Having recovered, the monk Seraphim thanked God for the innocent suffering and asked for forgiveness for evil-doers.

In 1786 he received the monastic tonsure with the name Seraphim. Having besought the blessing of the hegumen, Seraphim went into the forest, where he built himself a little cell. After tonsure he constantly felt the presence of God all around him was transformed.

- Even the wild animals around him became gentle and affectionate.
