A detailed photograph of a Thanksgiving dinner table. The central focus is a large, golden-brown roasted turkey on a white platter, garnished with herbs and vegetables. To the left, a whole pumpkin pie sits on a wooden board. In the foreground, there are several white bowls: one with cranberry sauce, one with green beans, one with Brussels sprouts, and one with roasted carrots. A silver carving knife and fork are placed on a woven placemat in front of the turkey. The background is dark, making the food stand out.
