

OUR FAVOURITE TATARSTAN

Kazan

Работу выполнила
преподаватель Голикова Г.В.

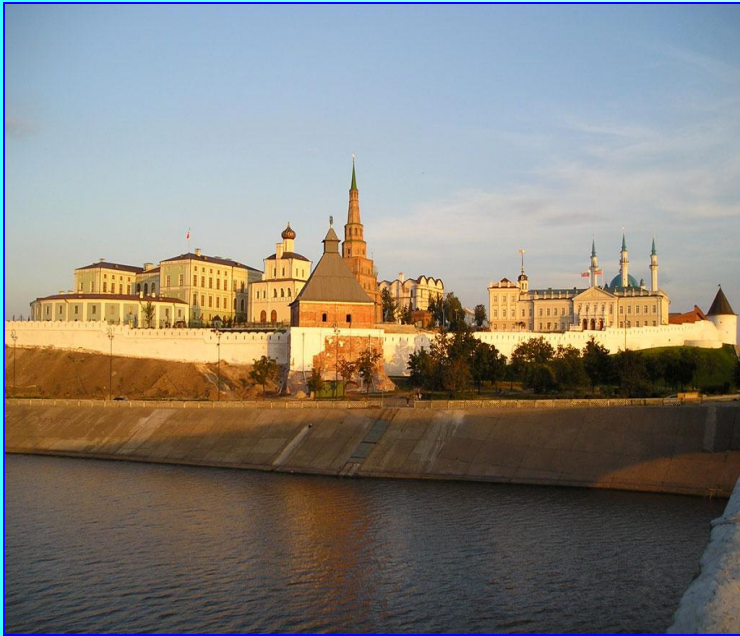

The map of Tatarstan

Kazan

is the third capital of Russia

The sights of Kazan

The Kremlin-fortress of Kazan.
Now it serves as president
residence of Tatarstan.

Raifsky monastery.
Renaissance begins since 1990.
In 1991 the first restoration works are conducted.

The tower of Sjujumbike is recognised as architectural symbol of Kazan and widely known for outside of Tatarstan. It concerns "falling" towers.

The Blagoveshchensky Cathedral is built in 1562 by the known Pskov architect Postnik Jakovlev who is traditionally considered as the founder of the Cathedral of Vasily Blazhennyj in Moscow.

Famous writers of Tatarstan

Bakyj Urmanche

Gabdulla Tukaj

Musa
Dzhalil

Kajum
Nasyri

Who will be the first?

Oh my language, native language
You're my soul & you're my heart
Many things I've learnt in this life
Through this language through my blood.

?

I. Visiting card of the teams

II. Questions:

1. When was Kazan founded?
2. What does the word “Kazan” mean?
3. Which tower has the nickname “the Falling” ?
4. What is the main river of Tatarstan?
5. Call none keeping towers, please.
6. Enumerate nations who live in Tatarstan, please.
7. Can you name the colours of Tatarstan flag?
8. Which group of languages does Tatar belong to?
9. Which group of languages does Russian belong to?
10. Who is the founder of the Tatar literary language?
11. Which holiday is the oldest in Tatarstan?

III. Competition of the captains

IV. Home task:

Who is this?

V. S A B A N T U J

Write down a lot of sentences about this holiday, using the verb 'to be' and degrees of the Adjectives.

Quiz is over !

