

FOOD AND HEALTH

A detailed photograph of a festive holiday dinner table. The table is covered with a red tablecloth and is laden with a variety of dishes. On the left, there is a large, golden-brown roasted turkey. In the center, a platter of sliced salmon is garnished with fresh herbs and fruit. To the right, a large platter of cooked lobster is garnished with lemon slices. Other dishes include a bowl of green salad, a plate of bread, and a small silver gravy boat filled with red sauce. The background features a large red poinsettia plant and a window with a view of a snowy landscape. The overall atmosphere is warm and celebratory.
