

An aerial photograph of the town of Belaya Kalitva in Russia. The town is situated along a river, with a large green baseball field in the center. The surrounding area is densely populated with residential buildings and greenery. The title 'B e l a y a K a l i t v a' is overlaid in large orange letters at the top of the image.

B e l a y a K a l i t v a

- Belaya Kalitva was founded in 1703 just in the same year as St. Petersburg.
- Belaya Kalitva is a town (since 1958) in Russia, belongs to the Rostov region. There are two rivers in the town: Seversky Donets River and Kalitva River. It's quite nice, green and very neat town.

Our church and a chapel

In one of the hills there is the Russian monument to the Russian knight Igor, dedicated to the brave Russian warriors.

There is a Historical Monument. The cultural life of the city is the Palace of culture, cultural center, school of the arts with branches, 2 beautiful parks, 6 libraries.

Two Sisters decorate our town from the other bank of the river Seversky Donets. Our town has the rich and vivid nature.