

Jay Had A Bad Day!!

Jay was tired of being a superstar, so he decided to become a teacher. It was his first day as a teacher yesterday. But he seemed to have a bad day. Let's see what happened to him.

For basic level

Please make a sentence for each picture with past tense.

Jay Had A Bad Day

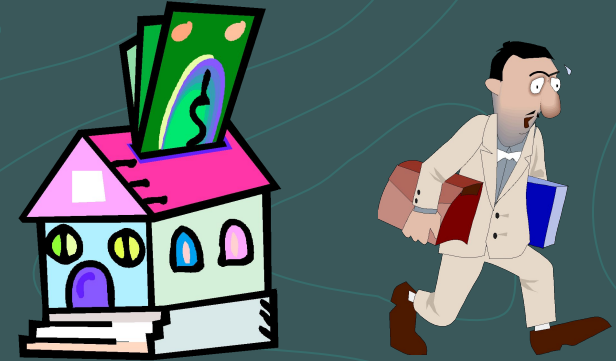

Example 1

8:10

Jay had to work at 8:10.

Example 2

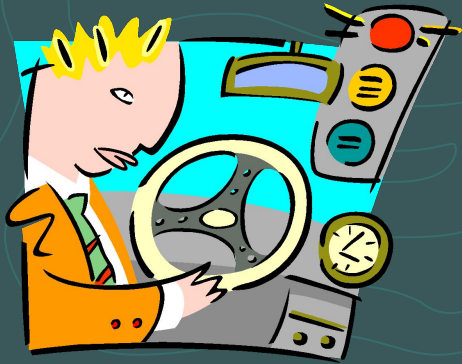

9:00

Jay left for work at 9:00.

Jay Had A Bad Day

Example 1

(run through a red light)

Example 2

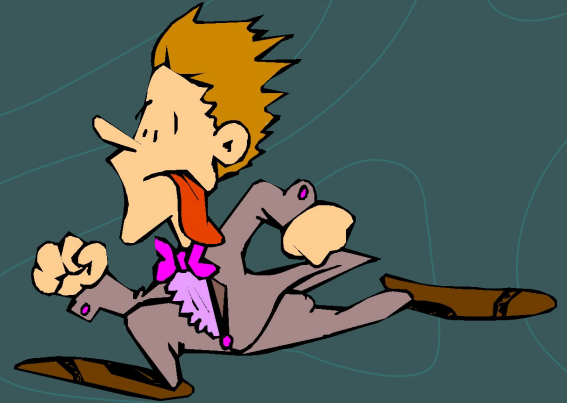

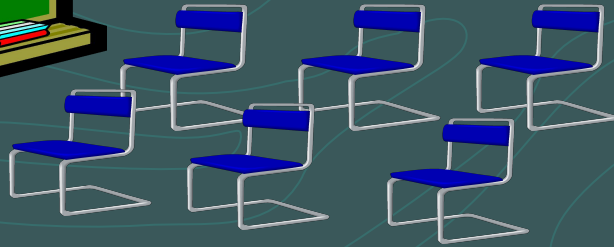

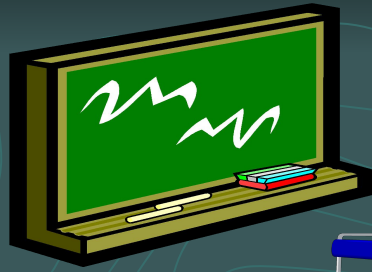

(get a ticket)

Jay ran through a red light at 9:30
9:30.

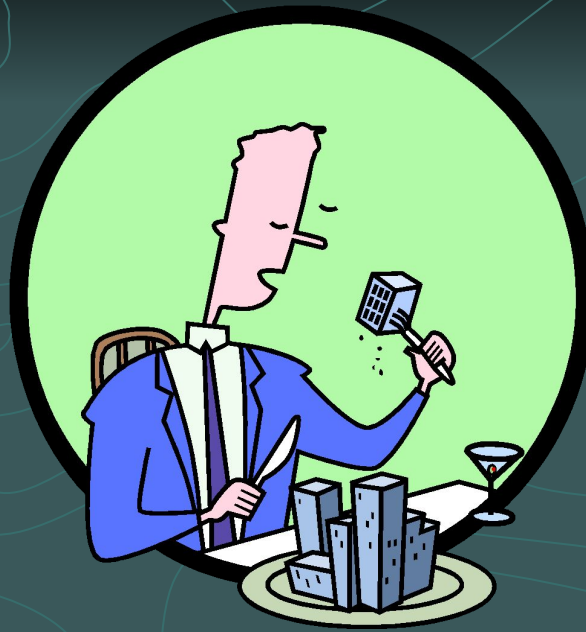

Jay got a ticket
from the police officer at 9:35.

9:35

(arrive)

Jay arrived at school at 10:00, but no students were there.

Jay had lunch at 12:00.

(wallet, steal)

Jay's wallet was stolen, but he didn't know about that.

Jay Had A Bad Day

(go to pay)

12:40

Jay went to pay
the bill at 12:40.

Jay's car was towed away at 12:50.

Jay Had A Bad Day

restaurant

12:50

(leave)

13:00

Jay left the restaurant
at 13:00.

Jay Had A Bad Day

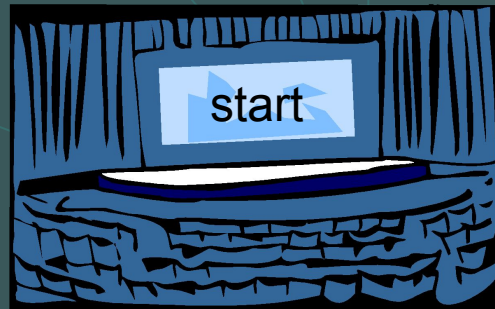

cinema

Jay planned to go to the cinema with his wife at 18:00.

18:00

The movie started at 18:20.

(leave)

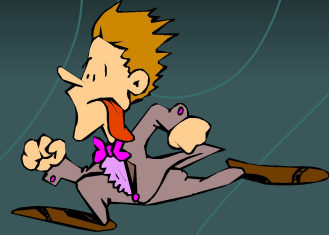

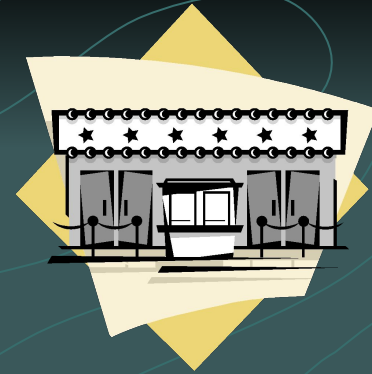

Jay was late, so

his wife left at 18:30.

(go home)

Jay went home
sadly at 19:00.

Jay finally arrived at the theater at 18:40.

It was really not Jay's day!

Jay Had A Bad Day!!

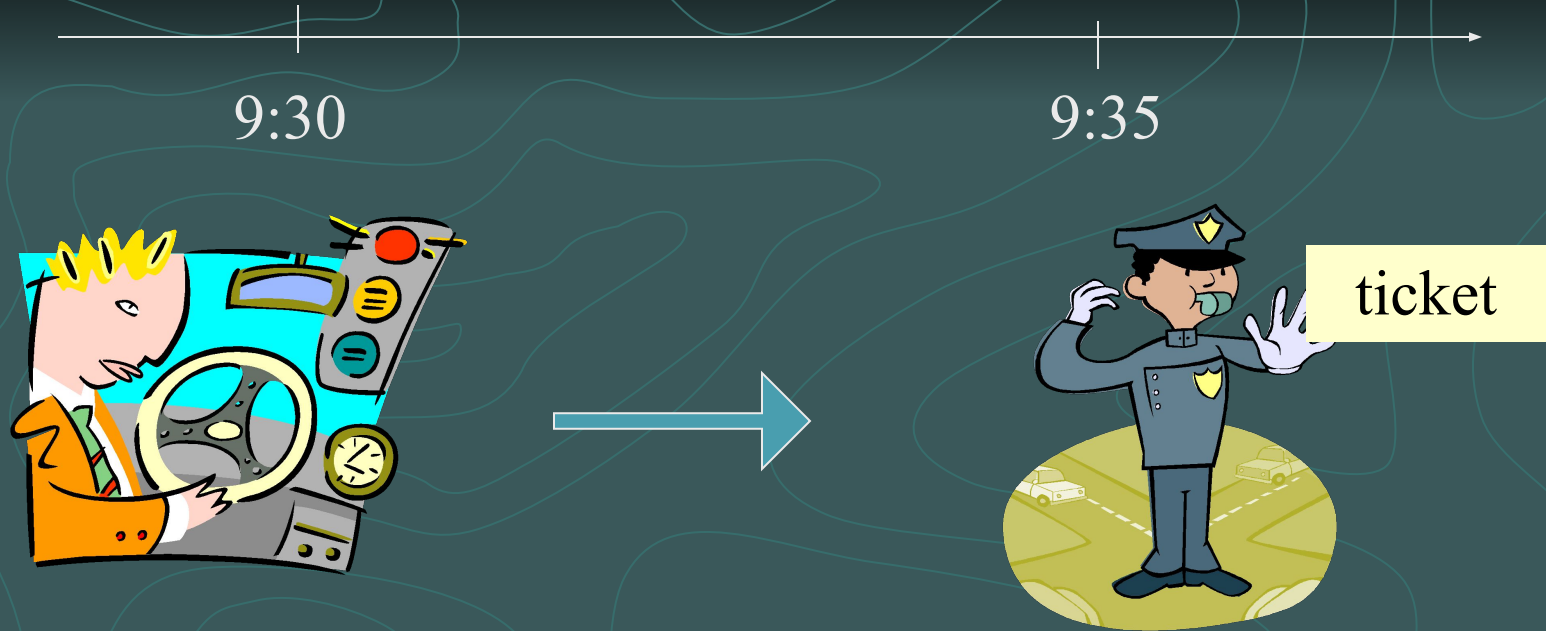

Till now we have learned about Jay's bad day. How about making a sentence with past perfect tense according to the pictures?

Past Perfect Tense

Use the past perfect tense of the verb to show that one action was completed before another. Use had with the past tense form of the verb to form the past perfect tense.

-
Everyone had fallen asleep
by the time the 11:00 evening news began. (Everyone had fallen asleep first; then the news began.)

Jay ran through a red light at 9:30.

Jay got a ticket
from the police
officer at 9:35.

After Jay had run through a red light, he got a ticket from the police officer.

8:10

9:00

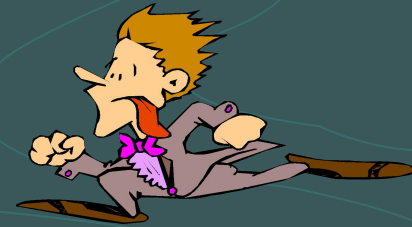

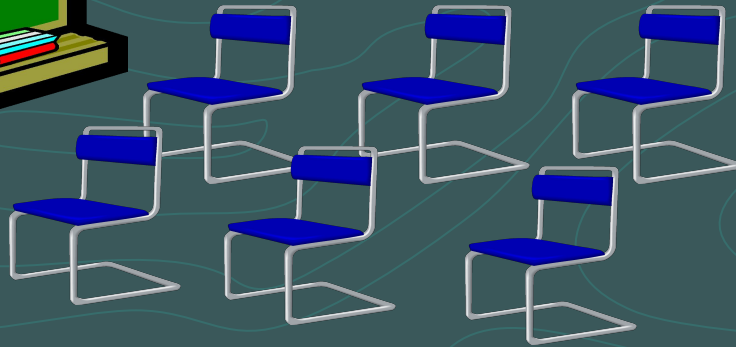

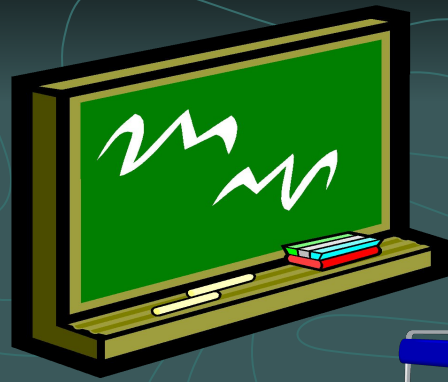

8:10

Jay had to work at 8:10.

9:00

Jay left for work at 9:00

Answer: When Jay left for work at 9:00, he had been late.

10:00

When Jay arrived at school at 10:00, his students had left.

Answer:

*When Jay went to pay the bill,
he found that his wallet had been stolen.*

Jay Had A Bad Day

Answer

:

*When Jay left the restaurant,
his car had been towed away.*

theater

18:00

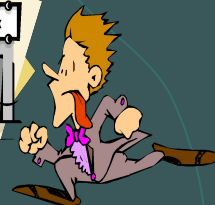

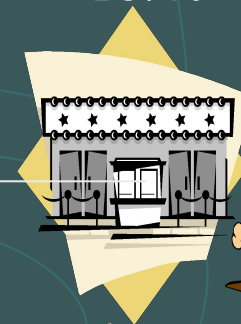

18:20

18:30

18:40

When Jay arrived at the theater, his wife had left.