

Flying into space

Manned space flight - a trip into space, into Earth orbit and beyond, performed using manned spacecraft.

The first flight into space

- The first and the right orbital manned space flight carried 12 April 1961 the Soviet Union, which became the first space superpower. The first manned spacecraft "Vostok" with the first cosmonaut Yuri Gagarin on board made an orbit around the planet, and safely delivered astronaut to Earth.

The world's first spacewalk

- The world's first spacewalk of the spacecraft in a spacesuit made cosmonaut Alexei Leonov March 18, 1965, the first spacewalk woman cosmonaut Svetlana Savitskaya made in 1984.

Gordo

- The first animal launched into space monkey Americans Gordo became the first monkey in space, December 13, 1958

