МБОУ «Жердевская СОШ»

Презентация по теме «День рождения детей в Китае».

Выполнила учитель иностранных языков Лысикова И.С.

There is only one child in Chinese families, but it is allowed by government to have two children nowadays.

Parents love their children best of all!

Parents make a birthday party for their children with great love and attention.

Birthday celebrations are very special in China. All the family comes together.

Family is very important for Chinese.

birthday gifts

Red is a special colour in China. It always means something happy and brings good luck.

Children get red envelopes.

There is money in them!

Noodles from turkey and red eggs are festive birthday meals.

Chinese people eat very long noodles that mean they will have a long life.

All eat noodles in soup and don't try to cut them because it's unlucky!
