

The Passport of my language

The name of my language is

It is the official language of Russia and Belorussia.

300 mln people speak it as the first language

People understand it in Belorussia, Ukraine, Turkey, Egypt.

200 mln people speak it as the second language.

The origin of my language is the eastern group of Slavonic languages. The English language has contributed to my language

Respect, account, brand, e-mail, scon-ove are English words in my language.

Words that are similar to English words are easy for an English person to say.

Words that have definite Russian rules in writing and pronunciation are difficult for an English person.

People should learn Russian because there are many Russian people in the world. The Russian Federation is the biggest country in the world.

