

THE POLITICAL PARTIES OF
THE UNITED STATES.

When America's founders wrote the
U.S. constitution in 1787, they did not envision political parties playing a role in the government.

The most common method for electing national and state legislators in the United States is the “SINGLE-MEMBER” district system.

The democratic party.

□ Party Chairman: Tim Kaine

□ Senate Leader: Joe Biden
(President of the United States Senate)

Robert Byrd (Senate president pro tempore)

Harry Reid (majority leader)

□ House Leader: Nancy Pelosi
(speaker)

Steny Hoyer (majority leader)

□ Founded: 1828 (modern)
1792 (historic)

□ Headquarters: 430 South
Capitol Street SE
Washington , D.C. 20003

□ Political ideology:

Historical:

Classical liberalism

Bimetallism

States' rights

Modern:

Progressivism

American liberalism

Third Way

Social Democracy

□ Political position

Fiscal:* Center, Center-left

Social:* Center, Center-left

International affiliation

None

Seats in the Senate

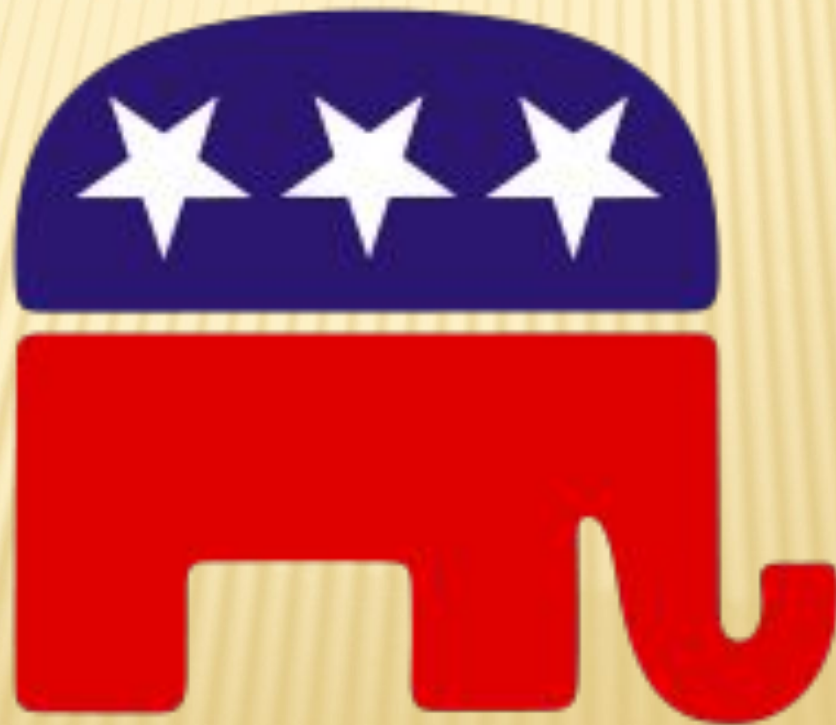

Seats in the House of Representatives

Color(s) Blue (unofficial)

The republican party.

□ Party Chairman: Michael Steele

□ Senate Leader: Mitch McConnell

□ House Leader: John Boehner

□ Founded: 1854

□ Headquarters: 310 First Street NE
Washington, D.C.
20003

□ Political ideology: Historical:

Abolitionism

Classical liberalism

Progressivism

Paleoconservatism

Modern:

Conservatism

Social conservatism

Neoconservatism

Fiscal conservatism

Right libertarianism

Political position: Fiscal: Center, Center-right

Social: Center, Center-right

International affiliation : International Democrat Union

Seats in the Senate

Seats in the House of Representatives

Color(s): Red (unofficial)

THE CONSTITUTION

PARTY.

- ▣ The constitution party is a nationalist and populist United States political party rooted in the paleoconservative movement. It was founded as the U.S. Taxpayers' Party in 1992. The party's official name was changed to the Constitution Party in 1999.

GREEN PARTY.

- A Green party is a formally organized political party based on the principles of Green politics. These principles include environmentalism, nonviolence, respect for diversity and social justice.

THE LIBERTARIAN

PARTY.

- The Libertarian Party was founded on December 11, 1971. Hundreds of Libertarian candidates have been elected or appointed to public office and thousands have run for office under the Libertarian

□ Thanks for attention!