Ivan Ivanovich Shishkin

(1832—1898)

Biography of Ivan Ivanovich Shishkin

Born in a family of merchants. After the Moscow School of Painting in 1856, the future master mainly lived in St. Petersburg. Of particular importance for Shishkin was to have natural impression received in his native place , as well as around St. Petersburg and Moscow.

"Morning in a Pine Forest"

Morning in a Pine Forest

- Shishkin painting «Morning in a pine forest» is one of the brightest products in creativity of the artist. The pine forest was the most favourite place where the master often worked over his pictures. When you look at this picture of Shishkin you can imagine yourself in this wood, early in the morning, feeling the smell of needles.

Painting “Rye”

Painting “Rye”

- Shishkin’s “ Rye” was painted in 1878; it’s one of his most successful works. One can see a golden box and ears of rye, the distant horizon, and the composition shows us a wide space extending into the distant field. The artist didn’t choose a forest, but still his beloved mighty pines.

3. The third group must find out some information about Valentin Serov

Answer the questions

What was his father? (a composer and music critic).

Features of impressionism disappeared from his work, and his ... style developed in his late period. (modernistic)

Where did he die? (In Moscow)

1. After the students present their work and match all pictures with the artists' names they make a conclusion:

There is a mistake in the textbook.

There are two Shishkin's paintings "Rye" and "Morning in a pine forest".

There is no any Levitan' work.

OOPS!!!

The end
