

Abraham Lincoln

The 16th president of the USA

- Abraham Lincoln- the 16th president of the USA.
- He takes a special place in the list of American presidents.
- He didn't quit and became one of the greatest presidents in the history of the USA.

Abe's childhood

- Born on February 12 1809.
- Grew up in the Middle West.
- His family were pioneers.
- Lived in poverty.

Enjoyed reading

- Although he had little chance to go to school, he liked to read.
- He taught himself by reading the books he could get as the Bible, Aesop's "Fables" and "Robinson Crusoe"

The greatest example of persistence

- 1831- Failed in business
- 1832- Ran for state legislature- lost
- 1838- Sought to become speaker of the state legislature- defeated
- 1840- Sought to become elector- defeated
- 1843- Ran for Congress- lost
- 1846- Ran for Congress again- this time he won- went to Washington and did a good job

- 1860- Elected president of the United States

He Didn't Quit

- The path was worn and slippery. My foot slipped from under me, knocking the other out of the way, but I recovered and said to myself, "It's a slip and not a fall"

A Great Lover of Poetry

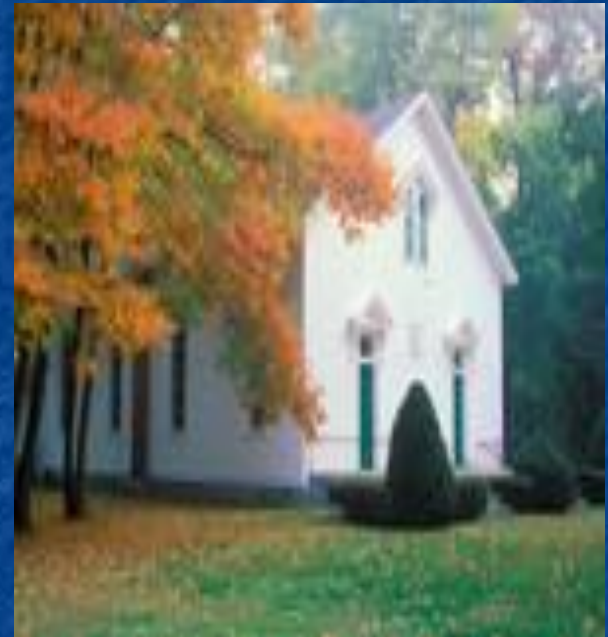

- His career as a statesman is well- known. Little known is that he was a great lover of poetry. His speeches and writings are filled with great and beautiful prose, but he wrote only three poems.

A Great Lover of Poetry

In 1844, Lincoln returned to Indiana, where he was raised. The place and the people aroused memories of his childhood that prompted him to write the poems.

*My childhood's home I see again,
And sadden with the view;
And still, as memory crowds my brain,
There's pleasure in it too.*
