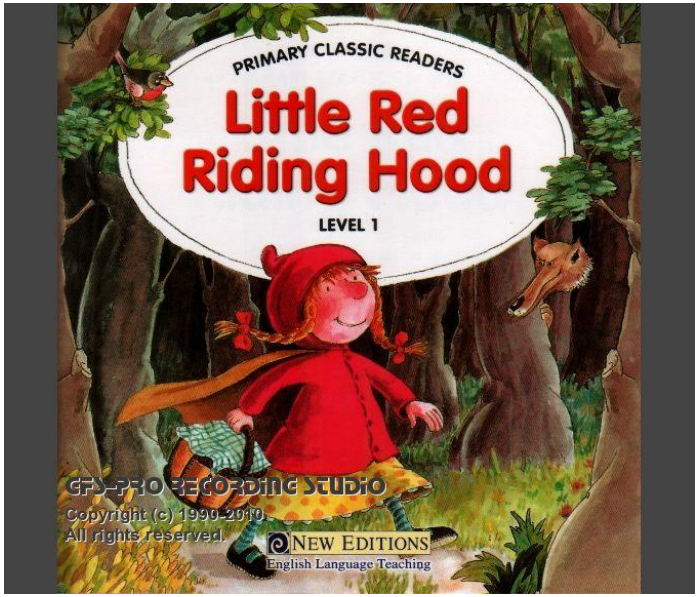
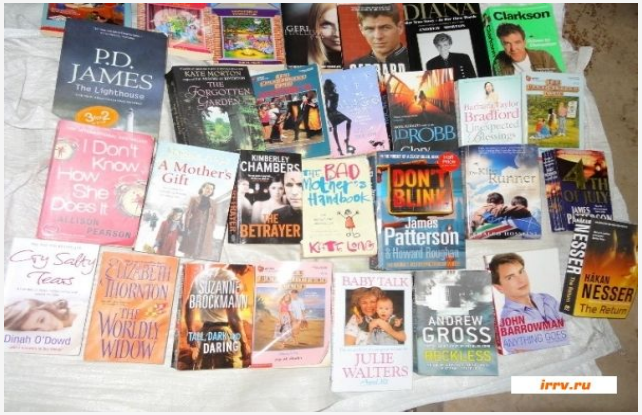
Avid Reader Competition

How to encourage students to read more

The objectives

- To master reading skills
- To enrich “passive vocabulary”
- To make reading more fun than duty
- To use “competitive” elements





Step 1

What to read

Avid Reader Competition

Do you think reading is fun?
Do you want to get a prize and share it with your friends?
If yes, come to our Avid Reader Competition on Saturday 26 December 2015 6th and 7th forms

at 9.20 a. m.
Room 13

You are welcome!

ate _____ Avid Reader Competition 6th form Name _____ ıtch the words from columns A and B so that they come from the same story a

	B
A Cat and a Dog	a). the Boar
A Lame Scribe	b). breakfast
The Crow- Peri	c).heat the pot at a distance
Two Brothers	d).starve to death
The piece of liver	e).a letter
A fox and a tiger	f).Rama
the Man and the Tiger	g). a lucky ring
the Jelly-fish	h). ivory palace
A Witty Servant	i). the Stone Lion
.Two brothers and their mother	j). Allah
.The Wise Monkey	k).the Monkey
.A New Way of Cooking	l).the Pong

l in the table:

	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12

Translate into Russian: 1. a ring -

2. sharp -

3. ear -

4. ox -

5.axe -

6. monkey's liver -

7. to beg -

8. ivory -

9. a stork -

10. Maharaja -

Date _____ Avid Reader Competition 6th form Name

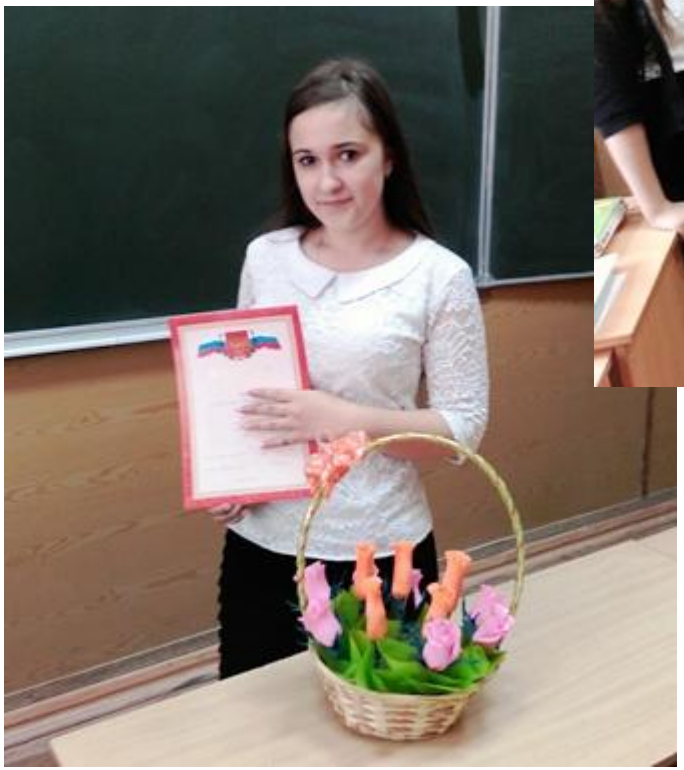
"Funny stories" 1-10

I. Answer the questions:

1. Who was Timothy?
2. Timothy wasn't afraid of the mice, was he?
3. Lucy and Melinda were monkeys, weren't they?
4. Who was Sandy?
5. Whose present did he eat?
6. Brownie was a nice dog, wasn't he?
7. What did the ladies decide at last?
8. What did Mrs. Kraus do one day?
9. Did Mrs. Kraus like her own house?

Date _____ Avid Reader Competition 7th form Name

I. Match the words from columns A and B so that they come from the same story and

A	B
1. Sherlok Holmes	a). a young teacher
2. Dr. Watson	b). a doctor
3. Harold Stackhurst	c).a niece
4. Silver Blaze	d).a headmaster
5. Alexander Holder	e).a detective
6. McPherson	f).a maid-servant
7. Colonel Ross	g). a man with a wooden leg
8. Lucy Parr	h). an Italian


The goal achieved