

A photograph of a dark-stained wooden door. On the left side of the door, there is a large, decorative wreath made of dried green grasses and small purple and white flowers. Below the wreath is a brass knocker in the shape of a bull's head with horns and a ring. The door is slightly ajar, revealing a brick fireplace mantel and a dark interior. The text 'Welcome to Dudutki!' is overlaid in the center of the image.

Welcome to Dudutki!

WORKSHOP. YOU CAN SEE HOW TO MAKE POTS.

The image shows several handcrafted straw toys. On the left, a large, intricate braided necklace hangs down, featuring a central pendant with a white butterfly-like shape and other smaller, textured straw pieces. To the right, there are several smaller, cylindrical braided pendants, some with orange or reddish-brown accents. The toys are made of light-colored, natural straw and are displayed against a warm, wooden background. The text 'WORKSHOP. YOU CAN SEE STAW TOYS.' is overlaid at the bottom in a bold, black, serif font.

WORKSHOP. YOU CAN SEE STAW TOYS.

WORKSHOP. YOU CAN SEE
HORSE SHOES FOR LUCK.

THE VILLAGE BAKERY. YOU CAN EAT FRESH BREAD THERE.

The farm. You can see domestic animals and birds there.

The water park. You can enjoy the beauty of Belarusian countryside.

You can see ostriches, peacocks, ducks and chickens.

A close-up photograph of a tall stack of traditional Belarusian pancakes, known as dudki. The pancakes are thin, round, and have a golden-brown, slightly charred top surface. They are stacked on a white ceramic plate. In the background, there is a blurred white bowl containing a light-colored liquid, likely a dipping sauce or milk. The lighting is warm, highlighting the texture of the pancakes.

YOU CAN EAT TRADITIONAL BELARUSIAN FOOD.

TUT.BY

You can see there a collection of old cars.

AND, OF COURSE, YOU CAN BUY PRESENTS.

Come and learn about Dudutki more!!!

