

A photograph of a dark-stained wooden door. On the left side of the door, there is a large, decorative wreath made of dried green grasses, yellow and white flowers, and small purple flowers. Below the wreath is a brass knocker in the shape of a bull's head with horns and a ring. The door is slightly ajar, revealing a brick fireplace mantel and a dark interior. The text 'Welcome to Dudutki!' is overlaid in the center of the image.

The image shows several handcrafted straw toys. On the left, a large, intricate braided necklace hangs down, featuring a central pendant with a white butterfly-like shape. To its right, another braided necklace is visible, with a smaller pendant. Further right, a braided cord is shown with a small, round, textured pendant. The background is a warm, wooden surface, and the overall lighting is soft and natural.

A stack of traditional Belarusian pancakes (dudki) on a white plate. The pancakes are golden-brown with some darker spots, indicating they are fried. The stack is tall and sits on a white ceramic plate. In the background, there are blurred items, including what looks like a bowl of sauce or another dish.
