

Why is it necessary to know English?

English is the language of the international communication. Having arrived to any country every person must know English, if he is a foreigner, it is necessary to speak English

If you want to go abroad to study, find new friends, communicate abroad, to study culture of any country, customs, traditions and literature you must know English.

English is very important in many professions, such as the manager, the programmer, the businessman, the advertiser and so on.

Many instructions are written in English.

Knowledge of English gives the chance to be trained at prestigious foreign universities.

<http://www.yandex.ru/>

<http://images.yandex.ru/>
