Project «Where is Buckingham Palace?»

Some interesting facts about Buckingham Palace:

- The history of Buckingham Palace
- The structure of the building of Buckingham Palace
- The Queen's parties in Buckingham Palace
- Buckingham Palace: what is it?
- The Queen's time-table
- How does the Queen spend her morning?
- Dinner at Buckingham Palace
- Visitors in Buckingham Palace

Some new words:

- Politicians политики
- Garden сад
- Flag флаг
- Emergency непредвиденный случай
- Bowls чаши
- Floor этаж
- Prepares подготовка
- To follow rules соблюдать правила
- The rest of оставшаяся часть
- A lot of много
- A silver spoon серебряная ложка

Now answer the questions:

- 1. What do you put in bowls?
- 2. What do you see a lot of on the street?
- 3. What are the colors of your country flag?
- 4. What floor is your classroom on?
- 5. Who prepares your dinner?
- 6. Who is a famous politician?
- 7. When there is an emergency, like fire, what do you do?

Что значит «to born with a silver spoon in your mouth»?

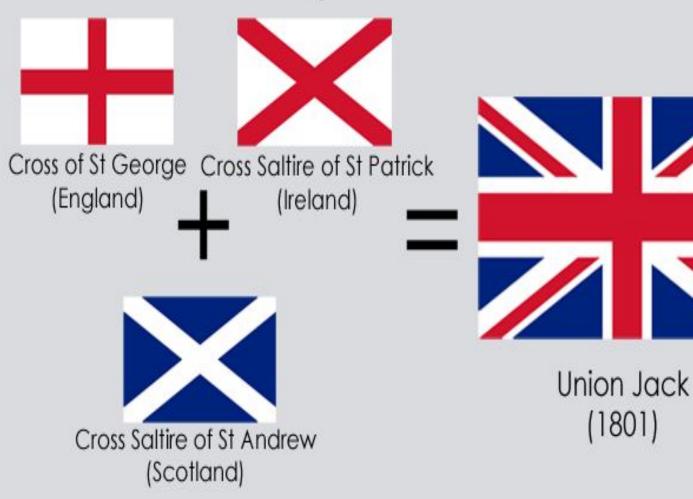

To born with a silver spoon in your mouth – родился в рубашке, под счастливой звездой (дословный перевод: родился с серебряной ложкой во рту). It means, that you were born in a rich family, you are very lucky man and everything will be OK in your life.

Union Jack

The flag of The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northen Ireland is sometimes called Union Jack. This red, blue and white flag was first used in 1801. The flag of the UK is a combination of the flags of England, Scotland and Ireland.

Union Jack

Making the Union Jack

Kings and queens of Europe

 There are a lot of monarchies in Europe: Andora, Belgium, Vatican, Great Britain, Spain, Denmark, Luxemburg, Monaco, the Netherlands, Norway and Sweden.

The King and the Queen of the Netherlands

The King and the Queen of Belgium

The King and the Queen of Spain

The Royal family of Norway

The King and the Queen of Sweden

Thank you for your attention!