

Have you ever been to the UK?

Do you know the Dos and Don'ts of British Etiquette?

Social etiquette in the UK

Culture corner

Definitions

- Extend – to reach out
- Firm handshake – holding smb's hand with a strong grip and moving it up and down
- Rare – not common
- Hug – putting your arms around a person and holding them tightly to show affection
- Make eye contact – to look smb straight in the eye when they look at you
- Typical – usual
- Greeting – way of saying hello
- In public – in front of a group of people
- Be aware – to make sure you know about smth
- Crowded place – area full of people
- Token – sign
- Elbow – the joint in the middle of the arm
- Second-rate – not the best

HELLO!

'ello

© <http://cagemonster.tumblr.com>

Hi!
Hello!
How are you?
Good morning!
Good afternoon!
Good evening!

How do Brits greet?

Which titles we should use?

Brits say “How are you”
because it is a

What we should say in all situations?

Which gestures are polite in
the UK?
And which of them are impolite?

If someone invites you to the dinner, you should

How we should behave at the dinner table?

-
- <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wN5BMYZDuW4>

What are the Dos and don'ts in Crimea?

Write 5-7 sentences about social etiquette in your country.

Home task

- Learn the 1st or 3rd paragraph by heart p.84
- Learn the new words
- SB ex. 3 p.84

British etiquette tips

A British person might say 'come and see me soon' or 'drop in anytime'. However, you must always phone before you visit someone.

