

LOOK

Study the phrasal verbs

□ To look at

□ To look for

□ To look to

□ To look after

□ To look ahead

□ To look back (on)

□ To look forward to

□ To look through

□ To look up to

□ To look round

To view, to give a glance
to search for

To pay attention to

To take care of

To think of the future

To consider the past,

to remember

anticipate

To look at quickly, to study

To respect

To survey, to examine an area

Смотреть на кого-либо

Искать

Следить за кем-либо

Заботиться

Смотреть в будущее

Оглядываться в прошлое

Ждать с нетерпением

Просматривать, пролистывать

Уважать

Взвесить всё

Contents

Speaking
g pictures

Multiple choice

Filling in the gaps

Combination

Final
Test

Substitution

A personal story

Listening

Reading

Translation

Teaching
recommendations

Look after

1

Look through

3

4

Look
back

Look for

2

Speaking pictures

*Look at the pictures & click them to listen to the short stories.
Find the appropriate phrasal verb to each picture.*

5

Look up to

Look up to Look for

Look after

Look through

Look back

Look
ahead

6

Look forward
to 7

Look forward to Look at Look round Look to Look ahead

Look
to 8

9

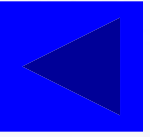

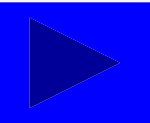

Look
at 10

Look
round

Filling in the gaps

Fill in the correct preposition.

To look at

To look for

❖ Do we have to pay to look round this castle?

❖ Looking

ahead

the future, we can imagine the time when all cars will fly.

To look to

❖ He won't even look at

it.

To look after

❖ Never look

back

, you can't change the past.

To look ahead

❖ She's been looking for

an apartment for half a year already.

To look back

❖ I'm so looking forward to it.

To look forward to

❖ The teacher was looking

through

our homework.

To look through

❖ We looked

to them for help.

To look up to

❖ He is looked up to

by many people.

To look
round

❖ A babysitter looks

after

the children when they go out.

TEST

Combination

Match two parts of one sentence

1) When I have travelled on business, my parents usually look after my children.

2) We have to look ahead and try to estimate our needs for the next few years.

3) Could you look at my report and tell me if you think it is OK?

4) Costs are getting out of control. We need to look at them closely.

5) My assistant is leaving at the end of the month. I'm looking for a new one.

TEST

TEST

6) I'm seeing him on Tuesday.
I'm really looking forward to it.

7) The boys watched the football match by looking through a hole in the fence.

8) Mr. Smith had taught for many years, and all the students looked up to him.

9) It's easy to make judgments looking

back at the past.

10) Can I help you? - No, thanks, I'm just looking

round.

❖ Я присматриваю ночью за ребенком.

I'm looking after a child tonight.

❖ Пролистай словарь и найди слово «престиж».

Look through the dictionary and find the word "prestige".

❖ Я с нетерпением жду, чтобы работать с тобой.

I'm really looking forward to working with you.

❖ Я ищу Мэри. Где она?

I'm looking for Mary. Where is she?

❖ Взгляните на картину!

Look at the picture!

Do we have to pay to look round this castle?

I looked for my keys yesterday.

*Looking ahead to the future,
I cannot imagine my life without you.*

*Never look back,
you can't change the past.*

She will always look up to her brother.

✓ Мы должны заплатить за то, чтобы осмотреть этот дворец?

✓ Вчера я искал ключи.

✓ Заглядывая в будущее, я не могу
представить свою жизнь без тебя.

✓ Никогда не оглядывайся
в прошлое, ты не можешь его изменить.

✓ Она всегда будет уважать своего брата.

TES
T

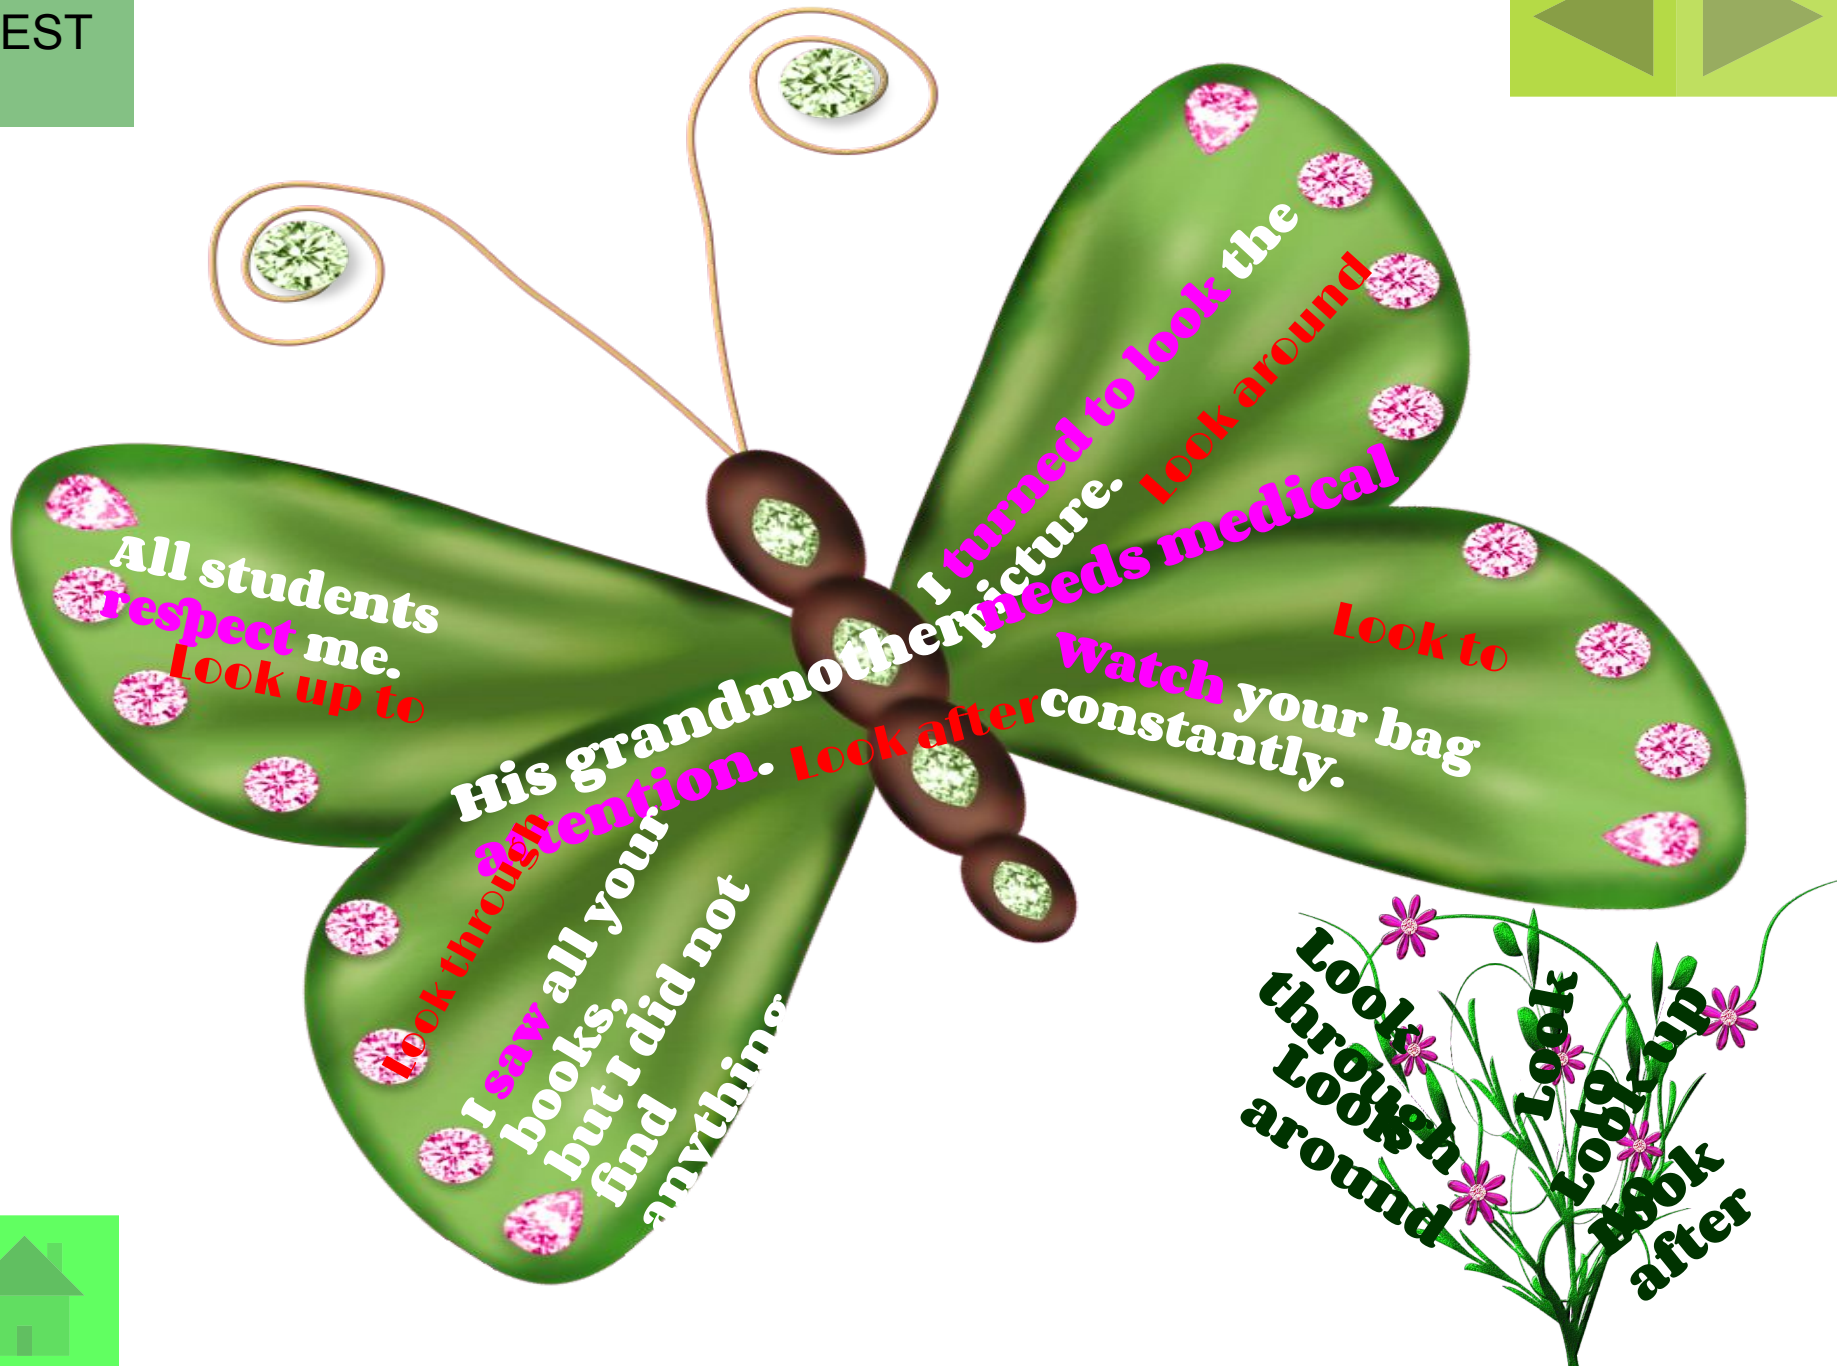

TEST

Substitution

Substitute
the underlined word
by a phrasal verb.

TEST

All students
respect me.
Look up to

His grandmother

Look through I saw all your books, but I did not find anything

I turned to look the picture. Look around needs medical

Look to Watch your bag constantly.

Look up Look after Look around Look through

Reading

Read the text & fill in the verb in the right form.

they don't believe you. People are usually reluctant to believe the extraordinary. You happen to have a room in a hotel watching the lake in Scotland where there's supposed to be a monster and you're just the window and there is the monster. You're it now.
You point at it and tell everyone to look out of the window because you've seen it. What do they do? They turn away.
I suppose it's not surprising because whenever you photographs of so-called monsters and beasts, they're never very clear.
People sometimes investigate the matter but there never seems to be any proof.
Whenever I read in the newspaper about someone who has allegedly had a mystical or strange encounter with a person or thing and is support is or finding someone who will accept their story, I to a time

some years ago when something similar

Listening

©Cordell deviantart.com

Listen to the text & tick the words that have been mentioned.

To look
back

To look at

To look through

To look for

To look
ahead

To look forward to

To look
round

To look up to

To look to

To look after

At the time I was living in a house which had a small alley at the side.

When you walked down the path you passed a window in the house next door and you tried to look ahead of you to avoid looking through the window and seeing what was going on. One night as the light was on in the room I couldn't resist looking through the window and saw a very short woman waving at me. She opened the window, introduced herself and invited me to look in on her one day soon.

I looked her up and down because she seemed so small and spoke in a strange cracked voice.

I forgot all about the invitation when one morning in the high street

I noticed a woman seeming to come towards me. I took no notice because I assumed she was about to speak to the person next to me. To my surprise she addressed her remarks to me: "I've been looking out for you. You looked right through me as though I wasn't there." Several shoppers round about looked on wondering what was happening.

"We spoke through the window — I'm from next door." I apologized, agreed to come round the following afternoon and said I was looking forward to meeting the rest of the family.

I looked round to take a closer look at the woman but there was no sign of her.

The reason why I wanted to look her over again was that she seemed to be twice the height.

The face was the same and the voice. My imagination was telling me that possibly she was a witch.

TO LOOK AFTER

To think of the future

To anticipate To take care of

To take care of

*To consider the past,
to remember*

*To consider the past,
to remember*

To search for

To pay attention to

TO LOOK AHEAD

To respect

To think of the future

To look at quickly, to study

*To think of
the future*

TO LOOK BACK

MULTIPLE CHOICE

Choose the right variant.

TES
T

To look at

To view, to give a glance

To take care of

To pay attention to

To view, to give a glance

To search for

To search for

To think of the future

To respect

To look for

To look at quickly, to study

To pay attention to

To survey, to examine an area

To pay attention to

To look to

TE ST

To look through

To look at quickly, to study

To take care of

To respect

To look at quickly, to study

To look forward to

To anticipate

To anticipate

To think of the future

To consider the past, to remember

To look up to

To respect

To take care of

To view, to give a glance

To respect

To survey, to examine an area

To survey, to examine an area

To look round

To respect

To pay attention to

TES
T

TES
T

Personal Stories

Click the picture & watch the movie.

❖ What are Nataly & Marina talking about?

❖ Which phrasal verbs do they use?

- Oh, do not look through the magazine so quickly. I can not look to the topic.
- Ok, I do this because I don't want to look at these shocking photos. The actresses are so awful.
- Yes, I agree, but now I'd like to find a horoscope. That's what I'm looking for.
- Really? As for me I do not like to look ahead.

- I've heard you have a new boyfriend. Is he good? Does he look after you?
- No, he is not a new one. He's my ex-boyfriend. We quarreled, but now it is OK. I don't like to look back. I've just looked round everything & understood that I love & look up to him.
- It's great news! I'm very glad. So I'm looking forward to you both at my party tonight!

seems to have been this looked after garden

This garden seems to have been looked after.

FINAL TEST
Create
sentence
S.

looked at car must my get I

I must get my car looked at.

fly the c will all to the when time we future ahead can Looking imagine

Looking ahead to the future, we can imagine the time when all cars will fly.

picture the look round
I

I look round the picture.

looked being I courageous so to him up

I looked him up to being so courageous.

I realized I was very naive when I looked back.

looked back I realized when I was very naive I

I look forward to seeing you soon.

soon I forward seeing to you look

Look to your bag constantly.

constantly to bag Look your

Jane decided to give half my clothes away when I had looked through them.

decided away my had looked them clothes I Jane when give half to

Jane went to the shops to look for a pair of shoes.

to Jane went the for to shops of a look pair shoes

- The presentation consists of 11 tasks of different types. Here you can find listening, reading, writing & speaking tasks with colorful illustrations & animation for more comfortable use.

- In this P. the following control buttons are used:

- back

- forward

- The P. works both for teachers & pupils. Teachers can use the material from tasks at lessons, & for pupils there are electronic exercises aimed at self-testing.

- For easier & faster navigation the P. is provided for hyperlinks & control buttons. Click on them & you will pass to the necessary slides.

Teaching recommendations

- Before starting the P. install the necessary programs: Hot Potatoes, Video & Music Pr-ms. Without them you won't be able to use all the material suggested.

contents
- All the tasks are unique & at the same time united with each other. It is better to use them in combination, but separately they will not lose their efficiency.

- To learn English from A to Z, pupils are also necessary to watch English movies. The P. will show you several real situations & you will try to elucidate the main theme with the help of phrasal verbs.

- These Internet-resources can help to find information about other phrasal verbs:

<http://exameny.ucoz.ru>

<http://www.studynow.ru>

<http://englishwell.org>

<http://study-english.info>

