

Sights of London

An aerial photograph of London, England, taken during the "golden hour" of sunset. The River Thames flows through the center of the city. On the left, the Elizabeth Tower (Big Ben) is prominent. In the middle ground, the London Eye Ferris wheel stands out against the sky. The Houses of Parliament are visible in the foreground. The city skyline is filled with various buildings, and the sky is a mix of orange, yellow, and blue.
