

He is a painter.
He always paints.

This man is painting
now

He is a postman.

He always delivers letters.

And he is delivering a letter now.

He is a doctor.

He usually workss at hospital

Is he workinging
now?

She is not a doctor

she is a nurse

she usually helps the doctor

This doctor is not working now.

He is waiting.

Waiting for...

Ambulance

He is a mechanic.

He always
repairs cars.

Is he repairing
now?

He is repairing the car

He is a taxi driver. He often drives.
And he is driving his taxi now

He is a pilot.
He often flies s planes

He is flying a plane now

They are bakers.
They always bake.
But now they are not baking

Mother and daughter are baking

He is a waiter.

He doesn't bake

And he doesn't cook

He serves food and drinks

He is serving food

She is serving a drink

She is a teacher. She reads s every day

They are all reading now

This girl
is not reading

she is saying goodbye